Building Costs Are Declining

...ION-LABOR GRAFT ...XPOSE IS REASON; ...RICE RING BROKEN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

...W YORK, Nov. 19.—Disintegration of the contractor-...der combines forming New York's alleged building trust ...ges and prices of construction materials have dropped since ...dence against these interests was opened, it was revealed ...y witnesses before the joint legislative committee conduct-...investigation.

...ased productivity of labor also has been apparent since ...vestigating committee began exposing one scandal after an-...d the grand jury started returning indictments, they said.

Mingled with these developments came evidence to show excessive country-wide control of production and prices in marble, cement, limestone and other trades. National associations are throttling these industries, it was alleged.

CEMENT CONTROLLED.

Testimony that the cement trade of the entire country is under the absolute control of a national association, and that there "is a very reek-bound agreement" in the granite and marble industry, was given by Hugh White, vice-president of the George A. Fuller Construction Company.

Proceedings of today also brought forth evidence that a policeman, Stephen Birmingham, was granted six months leave of absence from the police department while he worked under Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trades Council, in the "compensation bureau of the Building Trades Council."

Collusion in bidding among contractors and dealers in brick, cement and marble and other building materials was intimated during Mr. White's testimony. A mass of estimates "unvarying in amounts," and with even the wording "absolutely uniform," submitted to the Fuller Company by dealers in various materials was offered in evidence.

HOPED FOR BREAK.

Mr. White declared his company, before asking for estimates from various dealers, knew there was "no use" in having more than one, but always held the hope that "a break would come."

The Cement Men's National Association has divided the country into districts, he testified. Manufacturers will not sell to dealers outside the sphere assigned to them. Similarly, dealers will not deal with contractors beyond their designated territory.

George Atwell, a demolition contractor, also testified to nation-wide control of the cement business. He told of an instance in which he was not permitted to buy cement because he "was not a member of the association." Both witnesses cited rent price reduction. Mr. Atwell declared bricks dropped from $30 a thousand to half that amount.

A saving of $87,000 was made by the Fuller Construction Company in two months, White testified, by getting lower than expected estimates on $700,000 worth of work. He added that not only have prices come down, but the company's unit labor costs in the last two or three weeks "show more productivity for the men than before the investigation started, and I have had the same statement made to me in reference to the subcontractors by their representatives."

As an example of reduced material costs, he cited an estimate he had made four or five weeks ago on a certain limestone job for $52,-000. Ten days ago, he said, the contract was closed for approximately $38,100.

Atwell swore to paying more than $17,000 tribute to Brindell and declared he had never gone to the "throne" without being sent for.

D'Annunzio Says He is Sorry, but Must Keep Oath.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, says a dispatch to the London Times, told Gen. Caviglia, commander of the Italian forces in Julian Venetia, that he would not recognize the treaty of Rapallo.

The poet said he was sorry the treaty had been well received in Italy, but that his oath had been taken not to abandon Dalmatia.

He added that the internal situation in Jugo Slavia was such as to prevent ratification of the treaty.

AGED PAIR REWED AFTER DIVORCE.

Separated Five Years, They Forget Their Differences at Ages of 67 and 74.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Nov. 19. Henrietta Schmailzl, 67 years old, and Clemens H. Schmailzl, aged 74, parents of seventeen children, forgot the divorce that separated them five years ago and were remarried here today. They were first married in 1867. Mrs. Schmailzl was granted a divorce in 1915, having charged her husband with nonsupport and cruelty.

NOT BOUND BY TREATY

States German Note to League.

Enters Strong Protest Against the Allotment of Colonies and Mandates.

Thought Nation Would be a Member and Have Voice in Affairs.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

GENEVA, Nov. 19.—The German government no longer considers itself bound by the clause of the Versailles Treaty by which Germany surrenders her colonies to the Allies, according to an official note of protest, which has been presented to the League of Nations.

The note declares that the Allies have not fulfilled their undertakings regarding the clause of the treaty concerning the allotment of the German colonies and mandates. It adds that, having signed the pact of the League of Nations, Germany understood she would be admitted to the League and consequently take part in the allotment of mandates, but that now she no longer considers herself bound by that clause of the treaty.

The German note, addressed to the Secaretariat of the League of Nations, is a long document couched in judicial terms. It is moderate in form, but constitutes a strong protest against League mandates on which Assembly will have to pass judgment.

STATEMENT BY HAYASHI.

In an interview today, Baron Hayashi, one of the members of the Japanese delegation, said that, despite the elementary character of the League, it was working in a wonderful manner. He deplored the absence of the United States from the gathering and also the fact that the time was not ripe for the inclusion of enemy countries in the League, for, he said, the League must be a world institution and not merely represent a portion of humanity.

Mandates, open diplomacy and admission of former enemy states to the League of Nations furnished today's material for discussion in the Assembly. For the first time the word "revision" was pronounced —in connection with Article XVIII of the covenant of the League which provides for the registration of treaties or international engagements. For the first time also the viewpoint of labor as regards the League was presented.

The views of labor were presented by George Nicoll Barnes of the British delegation, who gained applause when he declared that "a general peace is impossible until we have industrial peace, and industrial peace is impossible until labor gets its full share of the product of its own effort."

WILL NOT MAKE MOTION.

Lord Robert Cecil of the British delegation has said that he will not move the admission of Germany into the League, and Honorio Puerredon, head of the Argentine delegation, who has spoken strongly in favor of Germany coming in, declares that he will not nominate her. Neither will the Dutch and Swedish delegations, which are supposed to be Germany's strongest supporters, propose her admission to the League notwithstanding the fact that sentiment favorable to her membership crops out in every debate.

RICE CROP DAMAGED.

Colusa Farm Land is Flooded.

Seven Men Are Rescued from an Island in Yuba River Near Marysville.

Hogs and Sheep Drowned in Butte County; Beans and Spuds Lost.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 19.—With several thousand acres of farming land in Colusa flooded, with many bridges carried out and varying estimates as to the amount of the damage to the rice crop, clearing weather early tonight was believed to have ended any further danger of floods in the Sacramento Valley as a result of the heavy rains of the last few days.

Reports from Red Bluff indicated that the Sacramento River was already falling after reaching the high mark of twenty-three feet this morning. At Sacramento the river registered eighteen feet this evening and is expected to go to twenty-five feet some time tomorrow when the crest of the flood passes the city.

According to R. N. Taylor, local Weather Bureau chief, this high water may result in the flooding of the lowlands of the Yolo bypass district across the river from Sacramento "causing the complete loss of many thousand sacks of beans and potatoes still unharvested there."

POTATOES IN FIELDS.

G. E. Bryan of the Liberty Farms Company, estimated tonight there are 250,000 sacks of potatoes still in the fields in the district between here and Rio Vista.

George Braddock, manager of the Sutter Basin Company, stated there is no danger of an overflow in that district. He declared that the storm would prove of great benefit to the grain men of the entire valley.

J. H. Stephens, president of the Pacific Rice Growers' Association, said that if the storm is followed by a north wind and drying weather,

EX-RULER GIVES PLANS.

"Our Policy Will be of Peace," Former King Tells Correspondent.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Former King Constantine of Greece today outlined his views of the future foreign policy of Greece to a representative of the Petit Parisien. "Our policy," Constantine is reported to have said, "will be of peace. We must reach an agreement with Bulgaria concerning Bulgarian outlets to the sea and also must conclude with Serbia a lasting agreement.

"Concerning Asia, we will hold out for restitution of Greek territory and eventually we will succeed in arriving at such relations with Turkey as will put an end to the massacres of Greeks in Asia-Minor.

"I always have tried to establish friendly collaboration with Rumania and Turkey and still maintain that our efforts should be united; but in order that this may be done, Turkey must accept the accomplished fact created by the Sevres Treaty.

"We shall keep to the letter the treaties just signed."

BROTHERS HOPEFUL.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ROME, Nov. 18.—Prince Andreas and Christorphores of Greece, brothers of former King Constantine, stated to the Associated Press today that they believed the plebiscite for the purpose of deciding upon the occupant of the throne would be held next week.

QUEEN MOTHER, REGENT.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 19. — Admiral Coundouriotis resigned as Greek regent last night, and was succeeded by Queen Mother Olga, says an Athens dispatch to the London Times. Immediately a message to the Hellenic people was issued by the new regent, announcing she had assumed office in conformity with the constitution, "on account of the absence of my well-beloved son, Constantine."

ALLIES MAY INTERVENE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Allied nations probably will intervene to prevent the return of former King Constantine to the Greek throne, says Charles C. A. Jonnart, former French High Commissioner to Greece and at present extraordinary French Ambassador at the Vatican. Similar opinion is voiced by Baron Denys Cochin, an eminent authority on Greek affairs.

"Constantine," says M. Jonnart, "seems to me not only undesirable for the Allies, but quite impossible. His return to the throne would mean that the greater Greece of Venizelos would be placed at the service of Germany. It is the right and duty of the protecting powers not to allow a Greece that is stronger than ever to become a vassal of Germany."

AMERICAN RED CROSS WORKERS ARE SAFE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—All members of the American Red Cross unit in South Russia except Capt. Emmett Kilpatrick, who was captured several weeks ago by Bolsheviki, are safe in Constantinople, cable advices today to Red Cross headquarters said.

CONGRESSMAN-ELECT AND SECRETARY DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Charles F. Van de Water, Congressman-elect for the Ninth District, and his secretary, Miss Luben of Long Beach, were killed early this morning when his automobile crashed into a trailer which was standing beside the road near Walnut. Mrs. Van de Water was badly cut. Mrs. Jackson of Long Beach, who also was riding in the machine, escaped practically uninjured.

George W. Chessman, proprietor of the Silver Peak ranch, near Walnut, took Mrs. Van de Water and Mrs. Jackson, together with the bodies, to the Pomona Hospital.

The fatal accident happened while Mr. Van de Water was returning to his home in Long Beach after attending a celebration given at Pomona in honor of his election on November 2.

The collision occurred about 1 a.m. a mile west of Walnut on the Valley Boulevard. Mr. Van de Water was driving. There was a thick fog at the time and just before the crash Mr. Van de Water was blinded by the lights of an approaching auto.

According to reports made to the Pomona police, the trailer, which was owned by the Italian Vineyard Company, was standing beside the road and was without lights. Mr. Van de Water's auto crashed into it at a fair rate of speed and the force of the impact was so great that the Congressman-elect's auto was overturned and all the occupants were pinned under it. Mr. Van de Water sustained a fractured skull. Miss Luben was instantly killed, being almost decapitated. Her throat was cut by broken glass and her neck was broken.

Autos driven by Mr. Wallock of Ontario and Mr. Chessman arrived at the scene within a few moments after the accident, and the men by heroic efforts raised the wrecked machine off the victims. Mr. Chessman placed them all in his auto and rushed them to the Pomona Valley Hospital. Mr. Van de Water died en route. His body and that of Miss Luben were taken to the Todd & Patterson undertaking parlors.

Mrs. Van de Water was treated at the hospital by Drs. J. K. Swindt and Swearingen. She is suffering from bad cuts made by broken glass and was so dazed that it was deemed best not to inform her of the death of her husband. Dr. E. E. Kelly, who had spoken at the banquet and reception in Mr. Van de Water's honor, was called to the Congressman-elect's home and informed Mrs. Van de Water of the accident.

The death of Mr. Van de Water came as a tragic end to a remarkable and successful campaign which he waged to regain the Ninth District in Congress for the Republicans. He defeated Charles H. Randall in an overwhelming vote, the figures being: Van de Water, 62,982, and Randall, 56,078.

Last night a reunion of Republicans from all over the Ninth District was held in the Pilgrim Congregational Church, Pomona, in celebration of the sweeping Republican victory and to honor Congressman-elect Van de Water and Mrs. Van de Water, and also Joseph A. Remenger, who was elected State Senator of the Thirty-third District. Following a reception in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Van de Water attended a banquet held under the auspices of the Pomona Republican Club, at which the Congressman-elect and his wife received an ovation. More than 250 prominent Republicans from all over Southern California attended the jubilee.

HAITIAN MARINE TESTIFIES

Soldier Accused of Numerous Murders of Natives Denies Charges.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PORT AU PRINCE, Nov. 19.—Freeman Lang, former American marine, charged with the murder of nine Haitian prisoners, again took the stand today in his own behalf. He denied specifically every accusation against him. He frankly admitted, however, killing one bandit chief with a machine gun at Bluche while attempting to escape.

Lang testified after four native gendarmes had taken the stand and asserted they saw him murder several prisoners, bringing the number of victims up to nine.

Each witness went into details and described how the natives were shot. One witness confused on the point as to whether the prisoners were shot while attempting to escape.

WEEPING ATTACK.

Just after beginning his testimony Lang suffered a nervous weeping attack.

A Haitian courier who was called to the stand described Lang as "very young, of blonde hair and very beautiful." "The beauty of Lang," the witness added, "makes a strange contrast with the facts for which he has been reproached."

Taking the stand after Capt. Patrick Kelly of the local gendarmerie, the jail sergeant, had denied every native charge regarding wholesale murders, Lang declared that he had shot only one prisoner.

KILLED BANDIT.

"This was a bandit chief," he said, "who was brought from the jail by a gendarme to my residence for questioning. The bandit refused to talk and was ordered rejailed. He tried to escape from the gendarme, who fired twice, missing him. I quickly got a machine gun, firing a spurt of bullets and killing him instantly."

Answering an inquiry by Maj. Jesse F. Dyer, judge advocate, as to whether he applied electric treatment to prisoners, Lang admitted putting coins in a water bucket and offering to give them to natives if they removed them, which they attempted to do, while, he said, other natives turned on a generator, shocking the prisoners.

MEXICANS BUYING MUNITIONS HERE; FEDERAL OFFICERS ON WATCH FOR SHIPMENTS SOUTH

Purchases of ammunition in abnormally large quantities by Mexicans here in the last few days have resulted in orders from Collector of Customs Elliott to his deputies at the harbor to scrutinize closely the cargoes of outgoing vessels, it was learned last night.

This precaution is being enforced to prevent any violation of the Federal embargo against arms or ammunition going into Mexico, and was taken, Mr. Elliott says, following the reports to his office of the unusual activity of the Mexicans, who, local hardware dealers said, paid for ammunition with gold. Their plentiful supply of money also aroused the suspicions of the dealers.

Thoroughness of the Federal officers in checking outgoing cargo caused the circulation of a report in San Pedro last night that the motorship Masatlan, owned by the California and Mexico Steamship Company, had munitions aboard. This was disproved, however, shortly before midnight when Chief Deputy H. H. McDonnough of the customs office returned from the harbor after supervising the Masatlan's loading. The vessel, which was scheduled to clear the port at 2 p.m., left almost twelve hours behind schedule, but no irregularities were found, he declared. The Masatlan makes several Mexican ports, including Ensenada as the first.

"The embargo against arms is based on a Presidential proclamation and is a general prohibition against exportation of arms to Mexico," Mr. Elliott stated last night. "The men in my office have instructions to see that the embargo is not violated and, since the reported purchases of large amounts of ammunition, special vigilance is being kept."

General Manager J. McMillan of the steamship company declared the holding of the Masatlan was due solely to delay in loading and that he had heard of no trouble in connection with the reported ammunition purchases by Mexicans. Inspector D. S. Packard also asserted that no trouble had occurred in the loading of any vessels bound for Mexican ports, but that close check is being kept to see that no munitions are placed on board.

END BATTLE OVER WILL OF SEARLES.

Settlement Effected Out of Court; Details Are Not Made Public.

BOSTON, Nov. 19. — Announcement that the contest over the will of Edward F. Searles of Methuen and New York, involving many millions of dollars, had been settled out of court, was made tonight by Charles F. Choate, Jr., counsel for the executors, and Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for Albert V. Searles of Boston, a nephew of the testator, who contested the document. They refused to disclose the terms of the settlement.

Under the terms of the will Albert Searles was to forfeit the bequest of $250,000 made to him if he should contest the will, the legacy in the case to go to the University of California. At hearings in the Essex county Probate Court at Salem, in October, Mr. Whipple argued that undue influence had been exerted in the making of the will at a time when the aged millionaire was physically and mentally incompetent to understand its complicated provisions. He declared that a plot existed to gain control of the estate and sharply attacked the motives of Arthur T. Walker of New York, who was made residuary legatee.

UNION LEADERS KEEPING SILENT.

No Statement on Work of A.F. of L. Council.

Policies of Organization Are Discussed, Report.

Co-operation With Industrial Engineers Planned.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor concluded its work tonight without making any formal announcement as to what had been accomplished during its two weeks of discussions.

Although members of the council, including President Gompers, were disinclined to talk, it is known that certain programs were discussed which will practically become policies of the organization. These include what was described as a healthy stand against radicalism within organized labor and for sharp restriction of immigration.

CO-OPERATION FAVORED.

There was also an almost unanimous agreement, it is understood, for closer co-operation between labor and industrial engineers. In this labor leaders believed they were accomplishing the dual purpose of eliminating waste and inefficiency and creating an atmosphere which would foster greater production.

Unqualified support is said to have been given the stand against radicalism, within and without organized labor, as voiced by President Gompers and Vice-President Woll. The statement of the federation president as regards radical foreign labor and the suppression of destructionists was accorded the council's entire approval.

WOULD BAR RADICALS.

Consideration was given methods by which radical workers could be barred, but this apparently was set down as impossible as long as the federation's by-laws remain the same. Leaders, however, are said to be determined to keep radical groups from gaining executive control.

Some leaders hinted that the federation plans to fight legislation which it opposes and may not conduct a campaign to put through bills it desires. The majority, however, apparently believed an offensive to be better than a defensive stand, and the introduction of measures the federation favors is to be expected, it was said.

FIVE HUNDRED RUSS WILL BE DEPORTED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—More than 500 Russian radicals remain to be deported, it was said today at the Department of Labor. All except forty are at liberty on bail. The others are held at Deer Island, Boston, and Ellis Island, New York, as they are regarded as too dangerous to be allowed liberty even temporarily.

Delay in deporting Russians was explained at the department to be due to a refusal of the Scandinavian countries to receive the deportees and to the closing of the frontier between Finland and Russia.

By an arrangement with the Canadian immigration officials, it was stated, Russians willing to return voluntarily at their own expense have been sent home by way of Canada and Germany.

TEXAS AFTER JAP SETTLERS.

Exclusion Legislation to be Introduced in State.

Senator Says They Plan Colony in Rio Grande Valley.

Every Legal Effort to be Taken to Stop Them.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Nov. 19.—Legislation designed to prevent Japanese from acquiring ownership of land in Texas will be introduced in the next session of the Texas Legislature in January, State Senator Bledsoe of Lubbock announced here today.

The bill, he said, would be patterned after California legislation on the subject. Senator Bledsoe said negotiations for the establishment of a Japanese colony in the Rio Grande Valley are under way and that he would make every legal effort to prevent its creation.

A CAREFUL ENUMERATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Figures on the Census Bureau as to the Japanese population of California were the result of a careful, actual enumeration of each individual, Director Rogers of the bureau declared today in a formal statement commenting on an article in the Sacramento Bee by V. S. McClatchy, its publisher, declaring the census figures were far short of the actual number of Japanese residents in California.

"The Japanese associations in making their census evidently did not operate under the same instructions as those controlling the Federal employees," Mr. Rogers said. "The three estimates given of the Japanese population, ranging from 97,000 to 109,000, should not be given the same credence, as the result of an actual enumeration. The census figures are preliminary. It is believed, however, that errors, if any, that may be discovered will have but little effect on the total."

PAPER MAKES SUGGESTIONS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

TOKIO, Nov. 19.—The suggestion that the Japanese-American negotiations in Washington be extended to cover all the subjects affecting the relations of Japan and the United States is made today by the Asahi Shimbun of Osaka.

In particular, it urges the necessity of a naval understanding. The newspaper asserts that America's naval policy is entirely under control of her "naval bureaucrats." It argues that America's present naval policy shows that some of her ambitious men wish to crush Japan before the latter's power increases and it urges the Japanese government to take the initiative toward an understanding which would eliminate useless naval competition.

The Asahi also advocates that a complete understanding be reached with China and proposes that the Washington government be invited to publish what it refers to as the Root-Kerensky agreement regarding the Siberian Railroad and defy the attitude of the United States toward the acquisition of rights and interests in Siberia.

FORMER KAISERIN'S CONDITION BETTER.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DOORN (Holland) Nov. 19.—The condition of former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, who has been suffering from a severe heart attack, was so much improved today that former Crown Prince Frederick William, who had been summoned to Doorn because of his mother's serious illness, returned to his home at Wieringen this afternoon. Before he left he said to the correspondent: "The ex-empress is a little better. There is no reason for great anxiety."

FARMING LAND IS OVERFLOWED.

the damage to the uncut rice would be comparatively small.

Some of the outstanding incidents of the storm as reported tonight were:

Seven men rescued from an island in the Yuba River near Marysville.

Landslide at Kennett holds up the northbound and southbound Southern Pacific trains.

A large number of hogs and sheep reported drowned in Butte county, where the precipitation was the heaviest since 1850.

A spur track of the Sacramento Northern Railroad between Marysville and Sutter City washed out.

Several thousand acres on the east side of the river in Colusa county flooded as a result of two breaks in the levee.

END OF STORM IN SIGHT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Swollen by torrential rains the Sacramento River at Red Bluff reached the flood stage of twenty-three feet between 4 and 5 a.m. today, but had receded a foot by 8 o'clock, the United States Weather Bureau reported here. The end of the storm, which has brought the river and other State streams up to the flood stage at many points, was in sight, the bureau said.

Fair weather is the prediction for tomorrow by the Weather Bureau. Rains had practically stopped tonight, it was said, with the exception of a slight fall in the vicinity of San Luis Obispo.

Storm warnings from Point Arena to Cape Flattery, which had been continually posted since the beginning of the disturbance, were taken down today and warnings to small craft substituted as a result of the slackening winds. The rainfall in the whole storm area has been unusually heavy, the bureau reported.

PRECIPITATION FIGURES.

Precipitation figures for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 a.m. today were as follows:

Oroville, 3.62; Chico, 2.80; Santa Rosa, 1.80; Mt. Tamalpais, 1.46; Colusa, 1.40; Rocklin, 1.35; Point Reyes, 1.14; Red Bluff, 1.00; Sacramento, .80; Orland, .65; Eureka, .64; San Francisco, .40; Stockton, .10; Paso Robles, .09; San Jose, Merced, .04.

The washing out of a small trestle over the Sacramento River at Kennet, Shasta county, held up all trains on the Southern Pacific company's Shasta division today, according to a report by the company's headquarters here. Temporary repairs to the trestle were completed at 1 o'clock, the company reported. Slides in the storm area were delaying trains somewhat, but were of a minor nature, it was reported.

NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH.

WILLOWS, Nov. 19.—William Uts narrowly escaped being drowned at Hamilton City today while trying to rescue cattle from the flooding Bend River. He was swept from his saddle by the rushing waters and swam to safety with difficulty. A number of cattle were drowned. Butte City reported tonight the Sacramento River had reached twenty-one feet and all avenues to the town were closed.

The bridge over Stoney Creek at St. John was carried away last night. Rice lands east of Willows resembled a huge lake today. With the cessation of the storm today, rainfall at Willows to date was reported to be 6.54 inches.

RAIN LIKE CLOUDBURST.

GRASS VALLEY, Nov. 19.—The fifth day of continuous rain here recorded a precipitation of 2.55 inches. This brought the season's total to 19.43 inches. At times today, rain assumed cloudburst proportions.

BOUCK MUST MAKE GOOD FOR ACTIONS.

National Grange Convicts Washington Official of Disloyalty and "Politics."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—Four of the eight charges against William Bouck, master of the Washington State Grange, were sustained by vote of the National Grange late today. The penalty voted by the Grange was an apology to be made by Bouck and a reprimand for his alleged disloyalty to the National Grange and for permitting politics to be introduced at Grange sessions. The charges sustained were:

Using his Grange position for political purposes.

Disloyalty to the National Grange.

Permitting a disqualified member to act in a State Grange meeting.

Permitting political speakers at a State Grange session.

Bouck, who has been known as a leader of the radical element in the Grange, was the unsuccessful candidate of the Farmer-Labor party for Congress in the Second Washington District, at this year's election. The committee's report was submitted today and its ratification brought to a close the fifty-fourth National Grange assembly.

Lindheim, charged with concealing alleged German ownership of the New York Evening Mail during the war, deposited a $10,000 check drawn in his favor by the American Association of Foreign Language Newspapers on April 5, 1915, according to testimony at his trial today.

Correspondence between Dr. Rumley and Dr. Bernhard Dernberg, former German Minister of Finance, was admitted to the trial today. These letters, the prosecution claims, are proof of the defendant's German sympathies.

MAY SPLIT ON SOVIET PACT.

British Trade Relations With Russ Cause Strain.

France Opposed to Idea; May Affect All Europe.

Reds' Refusal of Polish Peace Another Disturber.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The decision of the British government to resume trade relations with Russia closely following the collapse of the Wrangel anti-Bolshevik army is regarded here as possibly the prelude of important changes in the relations of European nations.

In taking the step Great Britain parts company on the Russian policy with France, which is opposed to dealing with the soviet government because of the latter's repudiation of the Russian debt to France, and further British commercial and industrials interests which would be put into Russia on the ground floor of profitable undertakings.

It is not unlikely that Italy, with which Great Britain has cultivated a close understanding, will follow suit, leaving only France and the United States opposed to entering into any relations with the Lenine regime.

RECOGNITION NO SURPRISE.

Complete recognition of the soviet government by the British government would occasion no surprise here among those officials who have contended against the resumption of American trade relations with Russia on the ground that it would strengthen the Bolsheviki and lead to their official recognition.

A new element may be thrust into the situation if Lenine and Trotsky, having disposed of Wrangel, now refuse to make formal peace with Poland and again assault the republic. In that event Great Britain would be charged with lending encouragement if not economic aid to the soviet government through the resumption of trade relations.

ACTION BY WILSON.

President Wilson nearly a year ago lifted, to some extent, the restrictions on American trade with Russia, but such trade is not facilitated or protected by the United States and Americans engage in it at their own risk. A few months ago the President issued the dictum that there could be no diplomatic or trade relations with a government which aimed to overthrow the American form of government and whose diplomats are and would be instructed to further that conspiracy.

Great Britain dealt with that menace by exacting a promise from the soviet government, as a condition for the resumption of trade relations, that it would not propagandize anywhere in the British dominions. As Lenine has boasted that his peace treaties are made to be ignored if desirable this promise is regarded here as merely a scrap of paper.

PROMISES EXACTED.

British Foreign Minister Curzon's recapitulation of the promises exacted of Russia is:

(A.) To refrain from hostile actions and propaganda, direct or indirect, against the institutions of this country.

(B.) To refrain from any attempt by military action or by propaganda to encourage the people of Asia in any form of action hostile to British interests or the British Empire.

(C.) To permit all British subjects in Russia to return home immediately. Russian subjects in Great Britain or other parts of the British Empire who desire to return to Russia being similarly released.

MUST NOT SEIZE GOLD.

Under Clause 9, the British government, according to the London Times, is asked to declare that they will not take or encourage any steps to obtain or take possession of any gold, securities or commodities which may be exported by Russia in payment of imports. Thus under the first clause the British government is virtually asked to wink at the repudiation of Russian debts and in the second not to facilitate any steps that Russia's creditors might be able to take to protect their interests by a seizure of Russian assets in this country.

The British banks had protested strongly against the completion of any trade agreement with Russia which does not provide for the unqualified reorganization of all Russian debts, and the business community was reported to stand solidly behind the bankers in their protest. Russia owes the British government more than $3,000,000,000.

EX-KAISER'S SONS ENGAGE IN SMUGGLING

Sneak Money Across German Border to Holland; Crown Prince Active.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—Among the royal personages declared to be engaged in money smuggling are the ex-Kaiser's sons, Eitel Freidrich, August Wilhelm and Adalbert. The smuggling was arranged through Ed Gruisser, a Dutchman, who formerly was a resident of London.

At the outbreak of the war Gruisser went to Germany, where, as an artillery officer, he became friendly with the Hohenzollerns and especially with the Crown Prince, and for whom he began speculations in 1916. Later he went to Holland, where he established the Gruisser, Philipson Company at Amsterdam.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DUBLIN, Nov. 19.—From early this morning until this evening the military was busy raiding in all parts of the city. The places raided included the offices of the Food Emergency Committee in the City Hall. Twelve persons were arrested.

COLLEGE BURNED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BELFAST, Nov. 19.—The Ulster College of Irish at Clough-Aneely, County Donegal, was destroyed by fire today.

The co-operative stores there were burned.

Both fires are believed to have been of incendiary origin.

MORE TESTIMONY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—More eye-witness tales of violence in Ireland and accounts of social and economic developments resulting from the effort of Irish independence, were received today by the commission of the Committee of One Hundred, investigating the Irish question. The commission then adjourned over Thanksgiving.

Personal accounts of the killing of citizens and police last September, at Balbriggan, and the burning and looting of homes and stores there and at Galway and other Irish towns were related by John Derham, town commissioner for Balbriggan, and Americans who toured the country recently, including Mrs. William A. King of Ironton, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Hackett of New York. A copy of the report made by the Quaker commission from Great Britain, which investigated Irish affairs recently was submitted by Paul J. Furnas of New York, representing the Society of Friends.

"Terrorism" was the term applied by all of today's witnesses to the military rule in Ireland. Mr. Derham said the "black and tans" bayoneted two citizens of Balbriggan and burned twenty-five houses during a raid in reprisal for the shooting of two officers by unknown persons. He said he was himself beaten with bayonets and otherwise maltreated. No compensation he said, was offered by the British government for property destroyed by the military.

A picture of the military rule, maintained with armed lorries and tanks in Cork, Limerick, Dublin and other cities, was given by Mrs. King, who said that street shootings were nightly occurences.

Mr. Hackett, associate editor of the New Republic, said that the people generally were submitting their civil and other controversies to the Republican courts. Barring only the nominal authority of Dublin castle, he said, there was little British dominion in Ireland except that of the military forces.

MAJORITY, SINN FEINERS.

"Eighty per cent of the people are for Sinn Fein," said Mr. Hackett, who stated that he always had sympathized with the Sinn Fein movement.

The judicial administration of the Sinn Fein officials, the witness stated, includes formal, although secret "trial" of police, constabulary and soldiers charged with killing Irish citizens.

"Responsible Sinn Fein leaders told me," said Mr. Hackett, "that these killings of policemen were an absolutely necessary act of justice, most of them having committed actual murder.

Conditions in Ireland are "working up to massacre," Mr. Hackett said. He added that many of the "black and tans" were ex-convicts and other desperadoes.

"The English are pursuing a policy of oppression and coercion," he continued, and are no effort to bring to book the guilty, among the military for lawlessness."

The British policy remains the stitution for property destroyed by military is to impose collective on citizens of the community violence has occurred, the witness said. He added that Sir Arthur Griffith had told him that in Belfast there were about 150 men in Ireland and he estimated the number of police killed within the few years at about 130.

BRISQ
Pronounced Brisk

PASTRY

Crisp—flaky—light as the gossamer down is the pastry shortened with Brisq. So delightfully perfect that some have renamed it Brisqery, no other word can fully convey the real difference between ordinary pastry and the delicious brisky creations made with Brisq. The wholesome purity, nut-like sweetness of this vegetable shortening is a revelation in the art of cookery. Brisq is instantly known by its creamy color and butter like consistency.

THERE is a big difference between Calumet and all other Baking Powders.

First—you see it in the cost. Calumet is sold at a moderate price.

Then—you observe it in use. Calumet has more than the usual leavening strength, therefore less is required.

Next—you notice it in raising quality—in the evenness—lightness and texture of your bakings. They look better—finer grained.

"S-o-m-e Biscuit!"

CALUMET
BAKING POWDER

Finally—what a difference in the taste. There is a deliciousness, a goodness that can be had in no other manner. Biscuits, pies, cakes, muffins, doughnuts—never were so tasty—so all satisfying.

And then there is the satisfaction of knowing that Calumet is made in the World's largest, best equipped and cleanest Baking Powder Factories.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Biscuit Recipe
4 cups of sifted pastry flour, 4 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 level teaspoon of salt, 2 rounding tablespoons of butter or lard, ½ cup of milk, ¾ cup of water. Then mix in the regular way.

PRESIDENT NOW TAKING WALKS.

Strolls About White House and Over to Auto.

Climbs Into Car Assisted Only by His Cane.

Revives Talk That He May Take Part in Inaugural.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—President Wilson is again walking considerable and the fact has raised the possibility of his appearing before Congress next month and reading his message. It was stated positively today, however, that such a dramatic spectacle as his appearance in a wheel chair will not come to pass.

It was officially stated today that while the President has not yet begun the actual writing of his message he has "arranged in h's mind" the subject matter and that the mechanical matter of putting it into type will take little time. The intimation was that the message will be comparatively short.

WALKS TO HIS AUTO.

Not only has the President strolled about the White House, but during the week has walked to and fro between the house and his automobile. He has climbed into the car with no assistance other than a cane and in other ways has displayed signs of physical improvement. His condition was described as wonderful by one White House official.

The steady improvement of the President recently has given rise to expectation that he surely will be able to attend the Harding ceremonies at the Capitol next March and take part in the subsequent exercises at the White House, including the review of the inaugural parade.

Only three times in history have retiring Presidents failed to attend the ceremonies at the Capitol inducting their successors into office. John Adams did not go to the Capitol with Thomas Jefferson and John Quincy Adams did not accompany Andrew Jackson or attend the ceremonies.

JOHNSON NOT PRESENT.

Andrew Johnson was not present when Grant was inaugurated. Aside from these exceptions it has been the custom of the outgoing President to go from the White House to the Capitol with the new Chief Executive and then both return to the White House. Theodore Roosevelt went to the Capitol with William H. Taft, but went from there direct to the union station to start his tour to Africa.

Those who know the President best firmly believe that he will muster all his grim determination and witness the Harding inauguration ceremonies and not from a wheel chair.

Madrid Bomb Injures Child.

MADRID, Nov. 19.—A bomb placed in a water conduit in a street here exploded last evening, injuring a child and doing great property damage. The outrage is attributed to a recrudescence of the recent terrorist campaign in Madrid.

BAKLANOFF WILL SING TODAY; ARTISTS MAKE NO PRETENSES AT STRICT MORALITY, IS VIEW.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Supported by a testimonial signed by all the stars of the Chicago Opera Company, Georges Baklanoff, Russian baritone, declared today he would sing tomorrow, despite the protest of Dr. Herbert L. Willett, president of the Chicago Church Federation.

Dr. Willett demanded that the Russian singer be barred because of his relations with Elvira Amasar, also a Russian singer, who caused his arrest last winter.

Baklanoff was held at Ellis Island four days when he arrived in this country after being deported, but was granted a three months' parole to keep his Chicago engagement.

"The ability of a singer is paramount," Baklanoff declared after reading Dr. Willett's letter, which characterized him as notoriously immoral. Continuing, the singer said:

"I am no minister or priest. Very few artists are, or make any pretensions of being particularly moral. Anyhow, very few church people go to the grand opera, so that if they object to me the opera company will lose nothing."

ROBBERY MYSTERY SOLVED.

Twenty-five Thousand Dollars in Cash Recovered by Federal Agents.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

COUNCIL BLUFFS (Iowa) Nov. 19.—Federal officers investigating the $3,500,000 mail-car robbery here Saturday night were preparing to leave Council Bluffs tonight, satisfied that their work on the case was virtually completed. A number of the officers from other cities, however, planned to remain here for awhile to work with local postoffice inspectors, checking up what they referred to as odds and ends of the case.

In all, the officers have arrested three youths and two men. It was said here tonight that no more arrests were expected. The detention of a number of the alleged robbers reported today and the recovery of $25,000 in bills were the outstanding developments in the case during the past twenty-four hours.

The hearing of the accused youths and men, set for tomorrow, probably will be continued to give the officers more time in which to arrange the details of the presentation of their case.

STATEMENT ISSUED.

Postoffice Inspector Claude Glenn authorized the following statement:

"The investigation of the robbery of the United States mail train is now practically complete. The arrest of T. A. Daly and Hugh Reed, at whose home the crime was plotted, had practically solved the great mystery."

Counting of the money recovered at the Daly home is completed and shows there is $25,000, all in tendollar bills. The Federal agents are now trying to locate the $20,000 which Mrs. Daly has said was carried away from the Daly home by young Poffenberger.

Fred Poffenberger, father of Fred E. Poffenberger, was arrested today. He is not suspected of having any part in the robbery, but was brought in to explain some things that are reported took place at the Poffenberger home. After being questioned for an hour and a half he was released.

The five negroes arrested today were released after several hours' investigation. It was found they had no part in the robbery, as was suspected.

REED IS ARRESTED.

The arrest of Reed last night is said to have resulted from disclosures made by Fred E. Poffenberger. The arrest of Daly at his home followed some time after Reed had been taken to the Federal Building and questioned.

Mrs. Daly declares that young Poffenberger brought the money taken from the mail sacks to their home early Sunday morning. The money was then in the original packages as sent out by banks. Just who was present at the time she does not state, but intimates that her husband was one member of the party. They went into a room and Mrs. Daly says she saw the men there handling and counting the money.

"They then went out to the garage and hid the money in a sack," she said. "I overheard them say they had burned everything in the sacks but the money. That evening my husband moved the money from the garage to the chicken coop. Next morning Fred E. Poffenberger came and took away about $10,000, saying: 'I'm going to get honest-to-goodness money. I'm afraid this is marked.' My husband knew nothing of the robbery at the time. He and Mr. Reed were home the night of the robbery."

THOSE IN CONTROL.

The large force of officials who effected the capture of the boys implicated in the robbery are gathering up the tangled ends of evidence preparatory to presenting the men to court. They are: Orville Phillips, 17; Merl Phillips, 20; Fred E. Poffenberger, 19; T. A. Daly, 45, and H. A. Reed, 45. None of the government securities have been found, and it is believed that the part of the confessions of Orville Phillips and Fred Poffenberger, to the effect that the bonds were destroyed, is true.

SHIPMENT INSURED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—United States government securities to the extent of several hundred thousand dollars have failed to reach their destination at eastern points after being shipped from the Bank of California here, and it is presumed by the bank authorities that they were a part of the loot obtained by the bandits who rifled the mail train of the Burlington fast mail at Council Bluffs last Saturday night. The shipment was fully covered by insurance, according to Frank B. Anderson, president of the bank.

"We made no announcement before today in regard to the loss of the securities, as we were not certain that they were in the rifled car," Anderson said. Anderson refused to state the amount of the shipment.

GOVERNOR RECRUITS FOR THE CALIFORNIA.

SANTA CRUZ, Nov. 19.—Gov. Stephens and staff of recruiting officials for the U.S.S. California arrived at Santa Cruz this evening from Watsonville. They were guests of the Chamber of Commerce at dinner.

Escorted by a brass band and by a local post of the American Legion in uniform, the visitors conducted a recruiting program at the high school.

Harding Enjoying Trip to Panama Under Clear Sky.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

ABOARD STEAMSHIP PARISMINA, Nov. 19.—Shaking the bad weather jinx that wrecked his vacation in Texas, President-elect Harding sailed toward Panama today under bright skies and over a smooth sea.

His steamship, the Parismina, which left New Orleans late yesterday, steered almost due southward, and during the first twenty-four hours had covered almost 300 miles of the 1400-mile course to Cristobal. Officers of the ship predicted perfect weather would continue throughout the trip.

Mr. Harding slept late this morning, and after a brisk walk aboard the deck, settled down in the warm sunlight to read a book about Panama. Soon, however, he became interested in game of shuffleboard being played by newspaper men, and could not resist the challenge to join the game. He practically spent the rest of the day in playing shuffleboard and other deck games.

Senator and Mrs. Harding take their meals in the general dining salon. Tonight they attended a picture show and concert in their honor.

BOY SINGER SCALES HIGH NOTES EASILY.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD ASTONISHES GRAND OPERA STARS WITH GREAT RANGE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Among boy prodigies, Edward Rocht Hardy, 12-year-old Columbia freshman, may boast the mastership of a dozen languages, and Samuel Rzeschewski, 9-year-old Polish chess wizard, recently checkmated nineteen West Point strategists in a row—but neither can sing.

Robert Murray, 13, of Tacoma, Wash., can. Yesterday before famous Metropolitan stars, including Mme. Frances Alda, who "discovered" the youth last summer, Murray not only reached with ease the high notes in arias of Galli-Curci and Tetrazzini fame, but, to the astonishment of his hearers, he transposed those high notes to a higher key and breathed them with equal facility and resonance. The singers who heard the performance asserted this was the highest note ever reached by the human voice.

FARMER DIES FROM BLAST OF DYNAMITE.

NEIGHBOR HELD FOR BLOWING UP HOUSE; DEATH LIST NOW TOTALS THREE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

GERMANTOWN, (Md.) Nov. 19.—James Bolton, a farmer, whose home near here was dynamited yesterday morning, died last night, increasing the death list to three. Two small children of Mrs. Hattie Shipley, Bolton's housekeeper, were killed instantly, and she is believed to be mortally injured. Vernon Thompson, a neighbor, is being held in connection with the explosion.

Authorities said Bolton and Thompson had been enemies of long standing and that their enmity culminated in an encounter election day in which Thompson was shot in the neck by Bolton.

Fifty pounds of dynamite is believed to have been used in the destruction of the Bolton home.

MEXICAN COAL MINES RETURNED TO OWNERS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19.—Mining properties in the State of Coahuila, which for several weeks have been under government protection as a measure of safety during the strike of coal miners there, were returned to their owners yesterday. Workmen who desired to return to their tasks were assured of ample protection, and the owners received guarantees against disorders.

If, within three days, the mines are not in operation and producing enough coal to revive paralyzed dependent industries, the government will again take over control. Reports from Coahuila have asserted that 90 per cent of the strikers desire to return to work.

SHIPPING QUIZ THOROUGH ONE.

Former Members of Board to Take the Stand.

Grave Charges Are Made on Business Management.

Food Costs Now $24,000 a Day Too Much.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Present and former "high officials" of the United States Shipping Board will be asked to testify before the Walsh Congressional committee now investigating the board's affairs, it was indicated today.

During the session today William Denman of San Francisco, who was the first president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, and the first active head of the Shipping Board, around whom much of the "wooden ship" controversy of 1917 centered, appeared and volunteered to testify.

He was informed by Chairman Walsh that the committee expected to hear all of the officials. Denman was told the committee would hear him before he returned to the Pacific Coast. Following the Thanksgiving holidays the members expect to go to Washington for the opening of Congress.

NEW CHARGE MADE.

Allegations that foreign interests and men who "had always been opposed to the upbuilding of an American merchant marine" had worked their way into subordinate positions with the Shipping Board to help foreign competition were made by Edgar F. Luckenbach, a ship owner and operator. He said that among the alleged "favored" firms in allocation of ships were subjects of Great Britain. He testified he did not include in this indictment any of the board officials, and he added there were others besides himself who "felt" that foreign interests were favored.

He charged the Kerr Steamship Company of New York had been allowed to make "three free trips"—that is, exempt from charter hire, with vessels the firm purchased from Austrians after this country entered the war. Mr. Kerr and Mr. Clegg, Kerr's associate, he said, "were then British subjects." When these free trips were granted, he asserted, freights were the highest in the world's history.

BRITISH FAVORED.

Discrimination in allocations, he charged, dated back to the time this country commandeered the Dutch ships in American waters. "Some of these ships," he said, "were allocated to British shipping firms, while American operators 'stood by'."

Alleged discrimination in allocation had put his firm out of the Australian trade—a trade which he had spent thousands of dollars to build up, he asserted. He said he was given but one ship for Australia, while "Welding Ring, who had not a single dollar invested in American shipping, was allocated seventeen boats for the Australian service."

LOSSES NOW GREAT.

He testified he was in favor of the "Bare boat charter plan," whereby operators would pay all expenses of crews, supplies, etc., over the present form of charter and operating agreement. If such was the case, he added, "the Shipping Board would be making money instead of losing millions of dollars every day."

In addition to suffering a financial loss in the repurchase of ships commandeered from him by the board when under construction, he also charged he was "out of pocket" $4,817,000, which he had to pay to recondition ships requisitioned by the board and returned to him on "five days' notice."

He said his claim before the board for this sum, which covered seven vessels, was still unpaid, and he had been told he was not entitled to any interest. One of the ships, he said, cost him $1,000,000 to recondition.

COST OF FOOD.

It is costing the government $24,000 a day more to feed the 60,000 men on Shipping Board vessels under the existing system of purchase of supplies than it did during the war before its ships were allocated, R. H. Gregory, the board's port steward in the North Atlantic district, testified today.

In New York alone there are eighty purchasing agents for as many operators of Shipping Board vessels. They are now bidding against each other for ship supplies and the government eventually pays the bills.

Edgar Luckenbach of the Luckenbach line, who said that during the war his entire fleet of eighteen steamships, totaling 243,000 tons, was commandeered, said his company had bought from the board $29,000,000 worth of vessels—"more than any other operator has bought." Many of the ships he purchased, from what he characterized as the "Slipping Board," were faulty in construction with "leaky rivets, leaky decks and so forth." More than 50 per cent of them, he said, had to be dry docked for repairs.

Seventeen Die in Icy Waters of Maine Lake.

BANGOR (Me.) Nov. 19.—Fifteen bodies had been recovered tonight from Chesuncook Lake, where half of the party of woodsmen on a motor boat of the Great Northern Paper Company jumped into the water yesterday after the craft had caught fire. It is believed that possibly two more were drowned.

It was learned tonight that the fire was caused by the back-firing of the boat's engine, resulting in ignition of the gasoline tank. Many of the survivors, who clung to the wreck of the boat until it drifted near shore, were severely burned.

Efforts to quench the fire failing, the party became panic-stricken. Many leaped overboard, according to word brought here today.

The icy water soon engulfed those who tried to escape by swimming. About half the crew clung to the side of the craft until it was blown shoreward by the strong wind. Seventeen men are believed to have been saved, some in a serious condition from exposure.

HOOVER POINTS TO PRODUCTION WASTES.

SHOULD SEEK TO ELIMINATE STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS, TELLS OF NEEDS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Three sources of waste in production and means of combatting each were outlined by Herbert Hoover tonight in an address before the Federated American Engineering Societies, speaking as President-elect of the organization.

Intermittent employment, unemployment that arises in shifting industrial currents and strikes and lockouts were the causes he mentioned.

Intermittent employment, he said, might be eliminated in part by co-ordination of economic groups.

Present legislation against combinations, he added, makes co-ordination impossible, but he suggested that there be developed some method of governmental interest, not in governmental ownership, but in stimulation to co-operation in better organization.

Loss of production incident to shifting of workers because of seasonal and short-period operations in industry, Mr. Hoover said, could be lessened by the expansion and better organization of local and Federal labor exchanges.

Strikes and lockouts would be materially lessened by the universal acceptance and use of collective bargaining, Mr. Hoover declared.

Other suggestions made to clarify the labor situation included the establishment of two or three levels of wage in each trade, based upon comparative skill and character. He also advocated extension of the shop committee system.

FORGED TICKETS ARE SOLD TO EMIGRANTS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CHERBOURG, Nov. 19.—Two hundred and fifty emigrants, bound for the United States, are stranded here penniless, because the ocean steamship tickets provided them by the supposed agent of a navigation company in Paris before they left by train for Cherbourg proved to be forgeries.

Manager Chapira of the American Society for the Protection of Emigrants, has asked the police to arrest a man who was intrusted with the task of securing the tickets for the emigrants. He is charged with pocketing their money to the amount of about 500,000 francs and delivering forged tickets.

FRAUD CASE DEFENDANTS SENTENCED.

Prison Terms of Six Months to Seven Years, With Heavy Fines, Meted Out.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 19. — Sentences ranging from seven years' imprisonment in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, to six months in the County Jail, and fines of from $1000 to $10,000, were imposed on eight officials and agents of the Consumers' Packing Company by Federal Judge Evan A. Evans here today. The defendants recently were convicted of conspiracy to use the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Former Rabbi A. J. Messing, a director, was sentenced to three and a half years and fined $1000. Edward J. Ader, secretary, must serve seven years, and he also was fined $10,000.

Eli Pfaelzer, president of the company, who pleaded guilty after the trial was begun, was fined $10,000. The others were fined from $500 to $5000.

STEEL STOCKS HIT NEW LOW RECORDS.

OILS, MOTORS, EQUIPMENT AND FOOD REFLECT BEARISH SENTIMENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Deflation of values on the stock exchange and the principal commodity markets was resumed in heavy volume today, sales of stocks aggregating 1,500,000 shares—a total only a few times equaled this year.

United States Steel at 80 made a new minimum for three years, and Bethlehem Steel, whose earnings recently were reported as very satisfactory, established a new low record for five years at 51.

Today's additional depreciations affected the oils, motors, equipments and food, tobacco and leather specialties, but shippings, outstanding features of the previous day's collapse, were fairly steady.

Advices dealing with financial, commercial and industrial conditions retained all of their recent discouraging characteristics.

The decision of the United States Steel Corporation to maintain present prices as a means of stabilizing that industry, unless it becomes necessary and proper to make changes to meet altered conditions, was offset by the news that the Midvale Steel Company had materially curtailed its working force.

GARAGE MAN SHOT IN CHEST BY BANDIT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 19.—Emil Dimich, local garage man, was shot in the chest and painfully wounded early today by a lone bandit who undertook to hold up a garage, but fled without attempting to rifle the cash register after the shooting.

Dimich complied with the bandit's order to throw up his hands, but at the same moment the man pulled the trigger of his revolver. The man was unmasked.

The Housewifes Burden

When a woman is almost distracted from overwork, her home is in disorder, crying children, and on top of all is suffering from backache, bearing down pains, or some other form of feminine ills, then she should remember that hundreds of women in just her condition have been restored to health and regained their youthful strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and not rest until she has given it a fair trial.

Proof that it Restored the Health of These Two Women

Cairo, Ill.—"Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep house and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."—Mrs. J. E. Matthews, 3311 Sycamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came when I could no longer keep up. It strengthened my back and relieved me of the ill effect which so often develops at such times. That was my first experience with the Vegetable Compound. Years afterwards I took it during the Change of Life and got along so well I scarcely ever had to lie down during the day and seldom had dizzy, fainting spells. I am now well and strong, can do all my housework with perfect ease and it is a comfort to me to be able to say to other suffering women 'take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and be strong.' I will be glad to have you use my name if it will be the means of helping any one."—Mrs. R. A. Fairburn, 606 Orchard Knob Ave., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Photos of Victim's Body Get to Jury in Marsh Case.

Many Witnesses Say Dead Man Had Bad Disposition.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Nov. 19.—Pictures of the body of Louis Terra, taken just after he had been killed on July 25 last, were displayed in court today in the trial of Jacob R. Marsh, his stepfather-in-law, who is charged with having shot him. The photographs, which have been greatly enlarged, show that Terra fell on his back at the foot of the steps leading to the porch of the Marsh home in Paso Robles.

During the time the pictures were being shown, Mrs. Terra, the aged mother of the slain man, who was in court, nearly collapsed, and the two sisters of the dead man were greatly moved.

Mrs. Susan Hearst Marsh, wife of the accused, was placed on the stand today and told of the events leading up to the shooting of Terra.

WANTED TO USE AUTO.

Terra, she said, came to the Marsh home to ask permission to use an automobile to take his wife and children to Morro for the day. One of Terra's brothers had been buried the day before, and as Terra was leaving shortly for Long Beach to make his home, he wanted to visit his mother in Morro. He was refused permission to use the auto, and while he was talking with Mrs. Marsh in the yard, he applied a foul name to Jacob Marsh, she said.

Marsh was in the house, but overheard the remark, came to the street door of the porch, and the quarrel ensued.

Finally Marsh left the porch, went to a closet in a bedroom and got his rifle. As he passed through the porch, Mrs. Marsh says she cried, "Don't shoot," and tried to take the rifle from him. When he wrenched it away Mrs. Marsh ran screaming into the kitchen, and was still there when she heard a shot. Going to the door she saw Terra lying dead on the ground at the foot of the steps. Marsh went into the house and replaced the rifle and then went out and surrendered to the authorities.

TELL OF REPUTATION.

A number of prominent men testified to the good character of Marsh and to the reputation for being quarrelsome borne by Terra. They were W. W. Kester, Marion Shimmin, J. W. Castelh, M. A. Kuhlman, E. S. Moorehouse and William Bagby, and C. A. Carr of San Luis Obispo and R. B. Luther of Templeton.

Mervin Kauffman, who was a witness at the first trial, left for New York immediately afterward, and his testimony was read into the case. It told of two threats against the life of Marsh made by Terra, one sometime last spring, and the other at about the time Marsh married Mrs. Hearst, who was the mother-in-law of Terra. On both occasions, Kauffman's testimony read, Terra had called Marsh vile names and said he would kill him sometime.

On plea of the attorneys on both sides the case was continued until Monday. It is expected it will go to the jury some time Monday afternoon.

Volstead Thinks Enforcement Act May be Amended

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—Amendment of the Volstead Prohibition Enforcement Act may be necessary as a result of the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court legalizing the movement of liquor intended for personal use, Congressman Andrew J. Volstead said here today.

"I think the Federal Enforcement Bureau has been unnecessary strict perhaps in refusing to issue permits for the movement of liquor bought for personal use before the act took effect. But it seems to be unwise to permit liquor to be moved without some kind of a permit.

"If the situation seems to call for it, we can easily amend the law."

More Weakness Being Displayed in Stock Market.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The stock markets developed further weakness during the day, opening with a moderate show of firmness. Calls for extra margins issued by brokerage houses after yesterday's collapse met with indifferent results, it was said. This evidently precipitated further liquidation, and new low records were made by many speculative issues.

Losses were extended at midday when United States Steel established a new minimum for three years and Bethlehem Steel registered its lowest price since 1915.

Gross declines among prominent industrials in the last hour extended some three to almost ten points.

Rails also gave way, losing one to two points. The market's tone was feverishly weak at the close. Sales were estimated at 1,350,000 shares.

Bread and Sugar Costs Once More Strike Toboggan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Another drop in refined sugar was announced today. The Federal Refining Company reduced its price to 9 cents for fine granulated. This followed a cut in raw sugar to 5.76, a new low record.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 19.—A drop of 2 cents in the price of a pound loaf of bread and 3 cents in a 1½-pound loaf, effective November 22 in Indianapolis, was announced today by Stanley Wyckoff, former fair price commissioner for Indiana.

BANKS CLOSED WHEN WHEAT IS HELD BACK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BISMARCK (N. D.) Nov. 19.—Three banks in Western North Dakota closed by the State bank examiner "are not closed as failures and may be reopened later," according to a statement by him today.

"The fact that farmers are holding their wheat indirectly caused the closing of two of the banks, and might be attributed as the cause of the other closure," the examiner declared.

Hongkong Chairs and Rockers

$10.50 Each

Not so long ago we offered this Chinese Furniture in a special way and at a very low price; the demand for it was tremendous.

We now find that we have 183 pieces left in stock and to effect a quick clearance of these we announce a still greater reduction than offered in our previous sale.

These Chairs, made in Hongking, were imported direct to this place, and it is to be admitted that they are an unusual combination of comfort, good looks, excellent construction and adaptability. They are made of natural Chinese reed, woven closely for durability. Yet the quality of the reed makes for flexibility by which characteristic the chair yields slightly to its occupant, thus giving that comfort so greatly desired.

They are so light and easy to handle that they may be carried about from one room to another with ease. Last but not least in the qualifications of these all-round chairs is the fact that they are collapsible—that is they may easily be taken apart and folded. They are convenient to take with you to the mountains and on outings of every kind. Will add greatly to your comfort on occasions of this kind.

CLOSED SHOP IS ATTACKED.

Mining Congress Told Unions Becoming Great Trust.

Speaker Declares Open Shop Move Sweeps Country.

Closing Session Passes Resolutions on Issues.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER, Nov. 19.—Animated debate which led to withdrawal from the report of the resolutions committee of a clause upholding all State blue sky laws featured the last session of the twenty-third annual convention of the American Mining Congress here today. Selection of a 1921 convention city was left to the board of directors.

Reports of the resolutions committee were adopted unanimously after the debated clause had been stricken out. Federal blue sky legislation was objected to.

Repeal of excess profits taxes, creation of a Federal board to settle taxation cases arising out of war conditions, a Federal "hands off" policy in the coal industry, higher tariffs on mineral imports and lower railroad ore rates, were among resolutions which received the convention's sanction.

TRUST ALLEGED.

The closed shop was attacked in an address by L. Ward Bannister, Denver, who charged labor unions were becoming a great trust and declared open-shop sentiment is sweeping the nation.

W. G. Bierd, president of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, said Federal control of railroads was a failure. Speaking of the labor situation, he said, there is still danger from the greed and avarice of the corporations class. He said the classes of the country must unite in a common interest, with a common purpose to achieve settlement of industrial problems.

Resolutions touching nearly a score of subjects were adopted.

JOB NECESSARY PART OF LIFE IN WEDLOCK.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DETROIT, Nov. 19.—Industrial Detroit—at least a part of it—has decided that one cannot lose his job and embark on a happy honeymoon.

It was shown today that lost jobs have postponed, if they have not altogether stopped, the wedded bliss of twenty-six couples in the last seven days, according to Bert Maloney, marriage license clerk. The bridegrooms have returned their licenses, though this is not necessary, as they are good until used. Four men who returned theirs today said that they had no jobs and could not marry. Previously returns have never averaged more than one a day.

MEXICO SHUNS POLICY OF GRAB.

Representative Tells Oil Men Need Have No Fear.

Border Nation Will Not Confiscate Private Property.

Pesqueira Fails, Though, to Commit Self Definitely.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—R. V. Pesqueira, representative of the provisional government of Mexico in Washington, told the American Petroleum Institute today that his government would never shame itself by confiscating private property. He spoke at his own request to correct, he said, statements previously made at the institute meeting by Frederic R. Kellogg, counsel for the Mexican Petroleum Corporation.

Questioned by Mr. Kellogg as to whpther the provisional Mexican government intended to continue Carranza's confiscatory policy toward American oil companies with properties in Mexico, Mr. Pesqueira did not commit himself as to the future policy of his government.

FAILED TO ANSWER.

When the Mexican representative concluded Mr. Kellogg declared he had "failed to answer any of the points raised by American oil producers with holdings in Mexico who feel themselves aggrieved."

Mr. Pesqueira charged that American oil interests in many instances had acquired huge tracts of land by dealing in a questionable way with Mexican government officials. Methods frequently used in acquiring oil concessions, the speaker declared, stand as a shame to both parties. During Mr. Pesqueira's remarks and Mr. Kellogg's rejoinder there was an exchange of personalities framed in more or less diplomatic language.

ARTICLE NOT RETROACTIVE.

Mr. Pesqueira declared that Article XXVII of the Mexican Constitution of May, 1917, which Mr. Kellogg had said was confiscatory in principle, was not retroactive and cannot be considered as such. He objected, he added, to the policy of those who are defaming the Mexican government and obstructing steps toward its betterment.

"As long as American oil companies deal with the Mexican government," the speaker continued, "Only through subordinates and lawyers whose main purpose seems to be to projong misunderstanding, there is not much prospect of a solution of differences."

The Carranza policy toward oil interests might be regarded as a step toward nationalisation, Mr. Pesqueira said.

"But," he asked, "is not the tendency of the world toward nationalisation?"

The government, the speaker said, is opposed to enforcement of retroactive laws, and is ready to pay all legitimate claims for damages. Article XXVII, he declared, is the tremendous aspiration of the Mexican people, embodying all their hopes for happiness.

BUREAU SILENT ON SEIZURE OF SHIPS.

INTERNAL REVENUE HEAD REFUSES TO INDICATE POLICY ON LIQUOR QUESTION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. — Inquiry at the internal revenue bureau on the question of seizure of American ships in port because intoxicating liquors are found on board by Federal authorities, failed to bring out any statement as to the bureau's policy.

Reports from Norfolk that Commissioner Williams had assured business men of that city that such incidents could be satisfactorily settled by coastwise lines with the prohibition authorities were not confirmed by the bureau. The Norfolk delegation conferred with the commissioner yesterday over the recent seizure of the steamer Jefferson in that port and the arrest of a member of the crew on a charge of transporting liquor.

Beyond admitting that a conference had been held, Commissioner Williams declined to dicuss the question or to give any indication of the policy of the bureau toward the seizure of coastwise shipping in cases of violation of the prohibition laws.

Lower Price Levels Necessary.

UTICA (N. Y.) Nov. 19.—Business, which is now in a buyers' market, must continue in a process of readjustment until lower price levels are found to put into action the purchasing potentialities of the domestic and foreign markets, Roger H. Williams, vice-president of the National Bank of Commerce in New York, told the Knit Goods Manufacturers of America at last night's session of their semiannual meeting here. Once these lower levels are established, he said, "there should be no reason to doubt that we will see an era of gratifying business activity."

Such crowds flocked out to Kenmore Place to see the modern electric home, and how enthusiastic all were! They really had no idea it could be so remarkable, nor did I, because it has certainly exceeded our expectations and brought us to a realization of the fact that household drudgery is a thing of the past and that the future home is going to be a bit of Paradise with domestic duties real pleasures to be looked forward to, instead of dreaded. Edward & Wildey, the builders, and the electrical organization as well, are happy in what they have accomplished, as the orders for similar modern homes are being poured in. You must pay a visit to this wonder house, 990 North Kenmore, and it is open for inspection each day between 2 and 10 o'clock.

When there's plenty of warmth within.

Suggestions we are full of, and chock-a-block with ideas for the most ideal Christmas gifts! To my way of thinking one of the Redwood California boxes, cunningly partitioned off with bits of wood, removable, of course, each compartment containing some typically Golden State product in its perfection, the Del Sur jellied fruits in glass jars, put up by the Santa Ana Preserving Company, carrying off honors for utter deliciousness, however. Each and every tiny space containing such surprises as whole figs, both white and deep purple, nuts and raisins and cactus candy, which everyone is mad about, would be the really acceptable gift for anyone back home. Call 67347 for information regarding the prices, which are going to be a pleasant bit of news. They are unusually reasonable.

A clothes prop makes an excellent lifter for raising and lowering pictures from the wall, by using the ratchet end of the pole to catch and hold the wire from which the picture is suspended.

Picture a refreshing mountain pool way up in the San Bernardino Mountains, far away from the dust and dirt of a big city—secure from all impurities—and you have a vision of what Arrowhead water is. This delicious water is brought from these mountains in glass-lined tanks, then bottled in the most scrupulously clean way and brought to your door by a call at South 381. If you are a stranger here you may not know that your continued good health almost depends upon the amount of Arrowhead you drink.

Put on your memo list of things to be ordered today—coal. Your supply is low and delay may mean a serious loss.

I can't remember who it was first told me of California Fig Nuts, to revive the spirits of my family and give them a new lease on life, as it were. Whoever it was has earned my undying gratitude, for we all adore them! The malt is so beneficial, you know, and the figs and nuts combined make this new breakfast food a treat, indeed. Let's tell all our friends about them, letting them know that all the best grocers keep a goodly supply on hand.

When a knife has been used to cut onions wipe it with a damp cloth and rub briskly with coarse salt. The objectionable odor will then entirely disappear.

"Have you a catering shop which compares with our establishments of the sort in the East?" a newcomer asked me. I merely led her to our California pride, the Elite Caterers and Confectioners, 641 South Flower street, bade her enter, converse with the saleswomen regarding the ability to cater at any sort of a function, taste one or two of the small cakes and then answer her own question. We all know it was "decidedly, yes."

Is everyone happy because the wood and coal supply was looked after? A fuel shortage could hold no fears.

Whatever would you do if the Acme Cleaners hadn't been recommended to you when you were desperate at the thought of cleaning your home, as you knew it had to be done? From "Garret to Cellar" in one day is their boast and they more than live up to it, doing all their work at the same time conscientiously as well as thoroughly. To Los Angeles women the Acme Cleaners are a blessing which each day we better appreciate.

We met at Paulais's, of course, I say of course, because it seems the thing to do. Paulais, the new house of sweets and confections, 741 S. Broadway, where one is served, oh, such good things to eat! You may have a light luncheon or any kind you prefer as the menu is varied and carefully planned. Tea and French pastries which surpass one's fondest expectations and think of it on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays. There are turkey dinners which you must not miss. These dejeuners are becoming more popular each week, as Paulais's becomes better

One demonstration of a Vacuette Suction Sweeper, an explanation of the inner workings of this newest addition to a modern home's labor and money-saving contrivances, and you instantly order one for your home. They cost but $24.85—are very light, weighing but 6½ pounds and may in consequence be carried to any part of the house without difficulty. The best hardware and department stores keep them in stock and still I would advise you to buy one as soon as possible. The demand for this remarkable sweeper is greater every day.

Your garden plot and grounds must be in keeping with those near by. The bulbs you need for the house beautiful by all means purchase from the Theo. Payne Seed Store, 345 South Main. The tulips this year promise to outde those of former years. The hyacinths Mr. Payne carries are the handsomest that grow and the Watsonias in their alluring ultra new shades are being sold so rapidly I think you had best go in today and order what you need. It would be very unfortunate if you delayed until too late.

Best see how much coal and wood you have on hand. Rumor has it a shortage of these necessary aids to comfort may take place.

"We did so want the tiny new 'Sky Parlor' painted, as we affectionately term our small bungalow. First of all the expense must be taken into consideration," was the woeful complaint of a recent bride I know. "Ever visit Thomas and Buchannon's, 226 E. 7th?" was my reply. A bungalow paint they are especially well known for has been used by my family for years. It is low in price but high in quality and used once, no other will you have. Patronize Thomas and Buchannon's and be convinced of the merits of paints.

Perhaps you are one of the multitude who needs a new gas stove and are unable to decide which store will give you the best service and have all the latest improvements together with the greatest advantages for cooking. Let me help you by suggesting that you go to Lyon-McKinney-Smith's, 737 S. Hill and have one of their able salesmen show you an Eclipse Range. Friends of mine have one which they bought there and no amount could induce them to use any gas stove but an Eclipse.

"Adobe"—

California's Traditional Building Material Thoroughly Modernized

In its "modernized" form this wonderful building material is practical and economical—it lasts as long as brick and tile and costs less than half as much! It is typical of California—it is best suited to its climate and is intimately associated with its early history.

The homes of "Modernized Adobe" in Walnut Park are the very last word in comfort and convenience—they embody all the newer improvements and are beautifully designed in true Spanish architecture.

They nestle among the shady green walnut trees of Walnut Park—are surrounded by wide expanses of green lawn and fragrant flowers. They are situated on paved boulevards.

In Walnut Park you have all city conveniences without having to pay city taxes. You can get a Walnut Park homesite for as little as $900, on easy terms.

Come with us to see this beautiful tract. Bus leaves 522½ S. Hill St. today at 10:30 a.m. (First door north of B. & M. Cafeteria, opposite Pershing Square.) Free luncheon specially prepared. Delicious home cooking. Other excursions Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. If you can't accompany us, drive south to Slauson Ave., east to Long Beach Blvd., then south to the tract, or take Huntington Park car (5c fare) going east on Seventh St.

A pamphlet describing the construction of "Modernized Adobe" homes may be had upon application at the Model Home or the tract office in Walnut Park.

FORTUNE IS HELD UP BY DEATH HOUR

Man and Wife Die Together and Will Entire Estates to Each Other; No Witnesses.

Whether George B. Sinclair or his wife, Margaret, died first is the point upon which the disposition of an estate valued at $100,000 hinges, it was disclosed yesterday in Judge York's court. The couple, both of whom were aged, were found asphyxiated at their home, 1609 South Wilton Place. Neighbors discovered the tragedy and a Coroner's jury declared the deaths accidental.

When it came to a settlement of their estates an obstacle presented itself. Each had left a will, and each left all of the estate to the other. The Public Administrator asked for letters of administration.

It was stated that if the husband died last the joint estate would go to his father, who lives in Novia Scotia, as his only heir. If the wife died last, the joint estate will go to Mrs. Anna Ferdinand of Crown Shield Road, Boston, her daughter by a former marriage, and her only heir. The case will come up for decision on Tuesday.

CONTROL CASE ARGUED.

County Contends Land Owners Lost Right to Protest Flood Work.

The suit of the Domingues Estate Company to enjoin the Flood Control District from constructing an embankment across Compton Creek and diverting the channel, came before Judge Shenk yesterday on an order to show cause. The company is represented by Attorneys O'Melveny and Millikan.

The county, through County Counsel Will and Deputy Morgan, contends that the plaintiff is estopped from seeking an injunction as the Flood Control District was permitted to go ahead, that the plaintiff acquiesced in the expenditure of large sums of money and the work was practically finished before an injunction was asked. The case will be continued Monday.

TAFT TO PRACTICE.

Judge Will Return to Law Firm When He Leaves Bench.

Judge Taft will resume the practice of law January 1, at the end of his term on the bench. He has accepted the invitation of his former associates to resume his place as a member of the law firm of Tanner, Odell and Taft, Van Nuys Building.

Judge Taft and Richard R. Tanner of Santa Monica organized the firm in 1894. Judge Taft left it to become a Superior Court judge.

WOULD INCREASE RATES FOR GAS

Los Angeles Company Goes to Railroad Commission.

No Figures in Petition and None Given Out Here.

Reason Assigned is That Oil Prices Have Gone Up.

Permission to increase its gas rates was asked yesterday of the State Railroad Commission by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation. The new schedule desired was not specified in the application, as the corporation officials explained they would be satisfied with any reasonable adjustment the commissioners would grant them.

In explanation of the petition, William Baurhyte, vice-president of the company, stated last night that an increase was needed to compensate for the increases in the cost of oil used in the manufacture of gas and the increased cost of labor.

"The company did not ask for a specified new schedule," he said, "for this adjustment is to be left in the hands of the Railroad Commission. I do not know what they will allow us, nor can I state offhand what increase is necessary to compensate for the increased cost of manufacturing artificial gas.

"The application for an increased schedule in gas rates was, I believe, a fair one, for the last rate fixed by the Railroad Commission was in March, 1918, when our company was granted a 75-cent rate. We have not had an increase since then.

"Regarding the increased cost of oil, the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation had us to last October, a contract for the purchase of oil at $1.35 per barrel. The contract has since expired and we have been paying $2 per barrel. We are now informed that beginning the first of the year we must pay the market price of $2.10 per barrel. As one-half of the gas consumed in Los Angeles is artificial gas and as artificial gas is manufactured from oil, the increase is necessary to cover the advanced price of oil."

On October 7, the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation applied for an increased schedule in electrical rates to meet the rise recently allowed the municipal electrical systems in Los Angeles.

Ask Dismissal of Libel Suit Involving Job.

A motion for a nonsuit was made in Judge Monroe's court yesterday in the trial of the $20,000 libel suit of Floyd R. Longsworth against S. T. Curson, A. J. Corey, A. L. Healton, S. L. Law, E. T. Blount, J. W. Butterfield, C. W. Fleming and W. J. Hickey, and the matter was continued until Monday.

Mr. Longsworth, an employee in the tax collector's office, declares he lost his position and his civil service rating as the result of a letter written to County Tax Collector Welch in May, 1919. This letter was a protest against the appointment of Mr. Longsworth in the tax collector's office. He was charged with being a slacker, incompatible and a trouble-maker.

Mr. Longsworth, denying the charges, produced the records of his draft registration.

The defendants deny the libel charge, declaring the letter was a confidential communication.

Neglect Charge Against Police Officer Heard.

A hearing on a charge that Police Patrolman Edward A. Crandall of 428 East Sixty-first street, neglected his duty, was held by Police Commissioner Wilson at the City Hall last night. The commission's decision will be handed down in a few days, Mr. Wilson said.

Mrs. Viola Datig and Miss Doris Dare, screen actresses, who live in an apartment-house at 1038 West Eighth street, and W. G. Magoon, proprietor of the hotel, testified that the policeman sought to gain entrance to Miss Dare's room early in the morning of the 8th inst., while he was on duty and in uniform. Chief of Police Pendegast stated that while the policeman was in the apartment-house, four highway robberies were committed on his beat.

Patrolman Crandall said he was merely making an investigation of what he thought was disorderly conduct in the young woman's apartment and was acting in the line of duty.

PILGRIM COINS HERE.

Half Dollars Carry Bradford's Head and Mayflower under Sail.

The first shipment of the new Pilgrim half dollars, minted to commemorate the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims, has been received here by the Guaranty Trust and Savings Bank. The coins, which show the head of Gov. Bradford on one side and on the other the Mayflower under full sail, are on exhibition in the windows of the bank at Seventh and Spring streets.

Directors of the mint have fixed the price of these coins at $1 each, and by the special arrangement which the Federal government has made with the Massachusetts Pilgrim Tercentenary Commission, all profits left after charges for the dies, minting and distributing costs have been deducted, will be turned over to the commission for use in improvement projects for Plymouth Harbor and for Pilgrim memorials at Plymouth.

ASK GOVERNOR TO INTERFERE.

Housing Commission Given Rap by Cotton Men.

Anti-Labor Immigration Work Hurts Big Industry.

Spot Market Assured Here; First in the West.

Sharply rapping the State Immigration and Housing Commission for what it terms malicious and unealled for interference, the International Cotton League of the West, in session here yesterday, adopted resolutions asking Gov. Stephens to curb the activities of the commission insofar as the labor situation in the Imperial Valley is concerned.

K. D. Oliver, general manager of the Imperial Valley Growers' Association, told members of the league that officials of the commission, after making a superficial investigation of conditions in the Imperial Valley, asked the immigration authorities to check immigration of Mexican laborers. The matter was also brought to the attention of the Mexican diplomatic representatives in Washington by them, he said.

"At the time officials of the commission were reporting that there was a surfeit of labor in the valley, and were requesting that the gate be closed, we had orders on our books for 600 cotton pickers and the demand has since increased to 1000," said Mr. Oliver. "They said we were exploiting poor Mexicans and underpaying them, which is not a fact.

"We are paying as good wages as are justified by the present price of cotton, and if we cannot get the crop picked it will have to waste in the fields."

AGITATORS BUSY.

W. H. Knox, general manager of the Arizona Cotton Growers' Association, declared he had experienced considerable difficulty with the Mexican authorities and asserted that labor agitators were making life unbearable for Arizona cotton planters.

"We are paying Mexican families as much as $125 a week, and individuals are making as much as $4 a day," he said, "and yet the labor agitators say we will pay more or they'll break every cotton grower in the San Rivers Valley."

The league yesterday voted unanimously to establish a "spot cotton" market in this city—the first one this side of Galveston and Dallas. This will divert Arizona and California cotton shipments here to be graded and stored in the harbor. Business will be conducted at an uptown headquarters in a manner similar to that of the local grain exchange.

W. E. Keller, president of the Globe Grain and Milling Company, chairman of the league, expressed the opinion that as soon as large shipments of cotton are turned this way, the Chamber of Commerce here and those in the cotton districts will be in a position to request railroad rates, which will make it cheaper for Arizona and California cotton men to ship here than to Dallas or Galveston. The move is declared to be of tremendous importance to the industry in the Southwest. The market should be in operation by the end of December, it is said.

Dr. George P. Clements of the Chamber of Commerce stated that the Secretary of Agriculture had promised that if Los Angeles is made a spot market, concentrating all cotton grown in the Southwest, he will in turn designate Los Angeles as one of the official spot markets of the United States, there being only ten at present. It was shown that at the present time cotton could be shipped to New York via rail and boat at $1.62, against a direct rail cost of $1.82.

Government experts working on pure seed and quarantine campaigns said yesterday that shipments of cottonseed cake from South America should be kept out because of danger from pests. They also approved the campaign to stamp out wild cotton weevil in certain new cotton-growing areas, where a total of 4000 acres are under government control, and there is talk of prohibiting cotton growing.

NEED UNIFORMITY.

The government men also stated that pure seed could only be had where all the growers in a valley or large area would adopt one type of cotton and stick to it for a series of years, as seed could not be kept pure with half a dozen kinds of cotton growing in as many square miles.

Ralph B. Merritt, former State Food Administrator, was elected a member of the executive committee. Solano Braco was named as the Lower California member, at the request of Baldomero Almada, who is shortly to become Governor of the peninsula. Martinez de Castro will still represent Lower California cotton growers in the league. Dr. Clements of the Chamber of Commerce was chosen assistant secretary, treasurer and vice-chairman of the league. There were prominent cotton growers in attendance from practically all cotton districts of Arizona and California. The next meeting will take place the second Tuesday in February.

Escapes Menace of Autos; is Hit by Car and Dies.

Struck down by a street car when she became confused while attempting to cross at Orange and Alvarado streets late yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Jane Howard, 70 years of age, of 1233 South Hoover street, was fatally injured. The aged woman was treated at the Receiving Hospital for a fracture of the skull and other hurts and died some hours later. The body is at the Pierce Bros. undertaking rooms.

Police who investigated say Mrs. Howard attempted to cross the street in front of several automobiles, became frightened and stepped in the path of the street car.

WEDS :: MILLIONAIRE :: TODAY.

Miss Weir Bride of McClure Estate Heir.

Miss Lillian Weir.

AT A quiet ceremony in Superior Judge Craig's chambers this morning, Miss Lillian J. Weir of 1535 Council street will become the bride of John Q. McClure, son of the late John McClure, pioneer vineyardist, and heir to one of the largest vineyard estates in California.

Mr. McClure is 28 years old. Miss Weir is 19. The wedding ceremony is to take place at 10 o'clock, with Judge Craig officiating.

Mr. McClure lives at 3425 North Broadway, is president of the John McClure estate, with an estimated value of $1,000,000, and vice-president of the National Auto Insurance Company. His father, the late John McClure, came to California forty-five years ago and for a time was interested in a dry goods store at Main and Commercial streets. Later he turned his attention to farming south of the city and secured a winery near Shorb Station, where Ramona Acres are now located.

After developing the Shorb Station property, Mr. McClure went to Burbank and developed a large tract for the growing of grapes. At the time of his death in 1915 he owned 800 acres of vineyards, which passed into the hands of his son, John Q. McClure.

Following the marriage, the young couple will leave for a transcontinental honeymoon trip and a visit to Mr. McClure's mother, who resides in Boston.

Mayor Denies Shake-up Plan for Hospital.

"I know nothing of any shake-up being planned for the Receiving Hospital," said Mayor Snyder last night when his attention was drawn to rumors being circulated that there are to be sweeping changes there.

Dr. C. G. Stadfield, police surgeon, also said he knew nothing about it, and Councilman Farmer, a member of the committee which has charge of Receiving Hospital affairs, expressed similar ignorance on the subject.

Miss Godowsky, Film Player, is Critically Ill.

Dagmar Godowsky, daughter of Leopold Godowsky, the pianist, and well known through her own work as a screen actress, was stricken with an acute attack of appendicitis yesterday morning and in the afternoon was removed to the Angelus Hospital in a critical condition. She was operated on at 10 o'clock last night by Dr. Edwin Larson.

Miss Godowsky is the second member of her family to suffer an attack of appendicitis within the last few days. Her brother Gorcon is also at the hospital, though in a less serious condition. Unless he is improved by morning he also will go under the knife.

Miss Godowsky is to appear in support of Frank Mayo in "Honor Bound," which will play at the Superba in the near future.

WEDS IN SACRAMENTO.

Miss Blanche V. Hull, only daughter of Mrs. Clara A. Hull, 513 North Figueroa street, was married in Sacramento yesterday to Monte V. Woodruff, former Angeleno, now treasurer of the Stockton Tractor Company in Sacramento, the wedding being the culmination of a prewar romance. Miss Hull is accomplished in sketching and has done some cartoon work for newspapers. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ella Marsh of St. Andrews Place.

SUPPOSED SLAYER IS IN AGAIN.

Chester, Who Hid Here After Barton Murder, Recaptured in East.

Dennis Chester, accused of the murder of Miss Florence Barton, a Kansas City society girl, and who has a wife here whom he is supposed to have visited recently, was recaptured yesterday after a sensational escape by leaping through the window of a Pullman car at Broken Bow, Neb., according to wired advices to The Times from Kansas City last night.

Chester went from Los Angeles to Great Falls, Mont., about two weeks ago to visit another woman. The officers, tipped off by an undelivered letter this woman had written to Chester, were watching her house and arrested the suspect as soon as he appeared. On his way back to Kansas City he made his desperate attempt to escape.

Chester and his Los Angeles wife have been separated for some years, his friends say, but he is supposed to have come here to see her while hiding from the nation-wide pursuit.

Miss Barton was killed by a bandit who attempted to hold up her and her escort in Kansas City last March.

A message from Broken Bow says Chester attempted to kill himself by strangulation in the County Jail there late yesterday.

Billie Burke's Husband Plans a Studio Here.

Florenz Ziegfeld, New York theatrical producer, has tentative plans for the erection of a film studio near Los Angeles for his wife, Billie Burke, according to a statement made to a Times representative in New York last night. The site, Mr. Ziegfeld said, has not been definitely decided upon, though several are being considered. Mr. Ziegfeld added that his wife will appear in two more pictures here under her contract with the Famous Players-Lasky Company.

GOOD SUM RAISED.

Child Welfare Benefit is Staged by Film Stars.

At least $2500 was realized last night at the benefit entertainment given by the motion-picture fraternity at Trinity Auditorium for the Southern California Child Welfare Service. The program was arranged by Patricia Smith and stars from local studios donated their services.

In the athletic events, Kid McCoy, Tom Mix, Joe Rivers, Leach Cross, Bert Colimas, Chris Jordan, Dannie Edwards, Marshal Booker, Bull Montana, and Gus Pappas took part, both in boxing bouts and wrestling matches.

Musical numbers by Wallace Reid, James Kessel, Eddie Weber, and Bud Jamieson were given. The master of ceremonies was Charlie Murray and in the athletic events Tommy Ryan acted as referee.

PASTOR GIVEN CAR.

Dr. E. Nelson Allen, pastor of the South Hollywood Presbyterian Church, was the honor guest at a surprise party given him by members of his congregation last night and was the recipient of a handsome automobile. An impromptu reception followed a program of music and refreshments.

SOUTHLAND TO GET AIR MEET.

Christmas Week Flying Event Awarded to Long Beach.

Eighty-five Planes Will Join in Big Sky Carnival.

Eastern Aviators Expected to Add to Exhibit Lists.

Southern California gets one of the three forthcoming national flying events under an arrangement made yesterday between the Aero Club of Southern California and the eastern aero clubs and associations. New York will have another and the third will be conducted at some middle point, probably Chicago.

The Southern California event will be called the national winter air tournament and it will open and dedicate the new municipal flying field being built by Earl Daugherty at Long Beach. The dates wired to New York last night by the local Aero Club, after conferring with the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, fix the air tournament for December 25, 26 and 27. As the eastern exhibits will come by express, this is considered late enough for national representation.

A novelty program combining both commercial flying demonstrations to show the possibilities of aviation for business uses and a number of air racing events was proposed by the Aero Club of Southern California to the eastern organizations last April. The idea was approved and the first program of this sort in the United States will be staged at the new Long Beach field at Christmas time. The New York air tournament, which will be held in May, will follow the same plan.

The new field, which will be formally opened by the air tournament, is on American avenue inside the Long Beach city limits, and the alighting runways are long enough for the largest aircraft. It will be fenced and put in shape to handle eighty-five airplanes on Christmas Day. The Gordon-Bennett racing entries, which represented America at Paris, and other fast planes are expected.

A feature of the Long Beach tournament will be an aero show, at which large cabin ships capable of carrying a number of passengers or a ton or more of freight will be on inspection. Half a dozen local aircraft of this type will be shown.

The Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Progressive Business Men's Association and Auto Trade Association have united in support of the enterprise. The city of Long Beach is aiding in leveling and clearing the field.

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT.

C. D. Burnett, a street-car conductor, accused of assault with intent to inflict a serious injury upon I. C. Bruss, 113 East Third street, was arraigned yesterday before Justice White. His bail was fixed at $2000 and he was committed to the County Jail.

HOLD DOUBLE FUNERAL FOR CAR VICTIMS.

St. Paul's Flower-Banked at Service for Daughter and Son of J. M. Elliott.

A double funeral of John M. Elliott, Jr., and Miss Alice Elliott, son and daughter of J. M. Elliott, local banker, was held yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral in the presence of more than 1000 persons. The chancel, in which Dean William MacCormack officiated, assisted by Bishop Johnson, was packed with flowers and the aisles of the church also were banked on each side with the tributes of friends of the deceased victims of an automobile accident and street-car collision last Wednesday.

The service was the impressively short and solemn prayerbook service of the Episcopal church and included no eulogies of the victims. Neither was there any singing, although Ernest Douglas provided organ music. Throughout the ceremony, scores of persons, unable to procure seats, were standing in the aisles and in the rear of the church.

Relatives and only the closest friends made up the cortege that accompanied the bodies to Evergreen Cemetery, where interment was made on the Elliott family lot. Dean MacCormack was in charge of the committal at the graves, and again the ceremony was brief and impressive.

The pallbearers for Miss Elliott were John C. Macfarland, William R. Millar, Francis P. Graves, William McFie, Edgene Overton, William Lovell, Alfred Wilcox and Frederick Gay. Those for Mr. Elliott were Roger Edwards, Robert Weed, Leslie R. Gay, Buford Elliott, Walter Lutz, George Greene, Lyman Jacobus and Louis Gilhousen.

Money Advanced by City to Help Children's Home.

A home for undernourished children is to be established by the Council of Community Service, of which Mrs. J. T. Anderson is chairman, and the City Council yesterday, by appropriating $3500, made possible the making of the first payment on the Monte Vista Hotel Building in the La Canada district, which is to be utilized for the new institution. The city's appropriation is to be given to the Social Service Commission, and later repaid by the Council of Community Service, which will raise the funds for the home from private sources.

SEEKS ONLY SON.

Mrs. Annie Bradley, a widow, living at 108 Paloma street, has begun a country-wide search for her only living child, John R. Bradley, a hoisting engineer, 25 years of age. Mr. Bradley has not been heard from since 1917, when he was working in Pittsburg, Pa., and does not know that his only brother was killed, while fighting in France, during the World War.

PROCLAIMS MEMORIAL DAY.

Mayor Urges Citizens to Attend Church in Memory of Pilgrims' Landing.

Mayor Snyder issued a proclamation yesterday setting apart Sunday, the 28th inst., as a memorial day sacred to the memory of the Pilgrims and urges that it be observed as follows:

"That all citizens, regardless of creed or race, plan to attend the place of worship of their choice on that day, or on the Friday, night preceding, as a public expression of their appreciation of the high ideals of freedom, loyalty to conscience, and faith in God that were cherished by the Pilgrims;

"That such attendance be regarded only as a formal witness to the service which the synagogues and churches are rendering to our homes and society;

"That parents and guardians of children not now receiving religious instruction bring or send them on that day to the synagogue or church school representing their faith."

In his proclamation the Mayor says that the three centuries that have elapsed since the landing of the Pilgrims have wrought vast changes. "Financially," he says, "we have become the most powerful nation on earth. But our very prosperity may prove our undoing unless we hold firmly to the principle of religion, as did these founders of our American civilization. The war drives are over, but there is another drive that is past due—the drive for clean, unselfish living and religion.

"To this drive I wish to summon all who are concerned for their country's welfare. Unless something far-reaching is done in this direction I fear the sacrifice of our precious sons on the bloody fields of France, will in time prove to have been in vain. Religion alone can help us in the present situation."

An appeal to all ministers of religion in Los Angeles was issued yesterday by a committee composed of Dr. Hugh K. Walker, president of the Los Angeles Church Federation, Dr. Ray C. Harker, president of the Los Angeles Ministerial Union and Rev. Henry Stauffer, pastor of the Park Congregational Church.

The committee urges that the ministers join in an effort to speak a spiritual awakening on Sunday, the 28th inst., and that they speak from their pulpits on "Religion and Democracy," "The Primacy of Religion in Our Nation's History," "The Present Day Call for Sacrificial Patriotism" or any other theme that seems best fitted to the occasion.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY
EPISCOPAL CHURCHES.

Tomorrow will be a red letter day in the calendar of the Episcopal churches. In addition to the fact that November 21 is the last Sunday preceding Advent, it is also the day selected in the Episcopal communion as "Go to Church Sunday." The presiding bishop and the national council have requested that all members of this great household of the faithful be present at divine service tomorrow morning or evening or, if possible, at both services. Dean William MacCormack, D.D., of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, will be in charge of both services at that church tomorrow, preaching in the morning on the subject, "Trustees of the More Abundant Life" and in the evening on "The Original Camino Real."

ADMIT GERMANY?
CHURCH OF THE PEOPLE.

Should Germany be admitted to the League of Nations? This question will be discussed at length by Reynold E. Blight in a prelude to his sermon on "Unhand Me!" tomorrow morning before the Church of the People. A special musical program has been arranged for the occasion. At 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning Rev. Charles C. Connor will address the Lyceum on "Paul Laurence Dunbar."

THE PRICE OF LAUGHTER.
TRINITY METHODIST.

"Would civilized America believe that her people are pulling from their purses more money to pay a clown to provoke a laugh than they are paying their President, their Supreme Court judges and the presidents of their ten largest universities combined?" This was the question asked yesterday by Rev. R. P. Shuler, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, South, when discussing a sermon which he will deliver tomorrow evening on the subject, "Is Charlie Chaplin a Born Fool or Did He Cultivate It?" In the morning Mr. Shuler will preach on "Trinity's Future" and the campaign for more than $13,000 indebtedness on the church will be culminated. Mr. Shuler stated yesterday that the success of the campaign is assured.

"ARE GOD'S DICE LOADED?"
WESTLAKE PRESBYTERIAN.

Are the dice of God loaded? Has the Creator predestined certain men to be saved and others to be lost? Was it the foreordained will of God that Judas should betray Christ? These questions will be discussed in a sermon by Dr. G. A. Briegleb, at the Westlake Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening, when he will preach on "Hellbound, No Christ, No Cross, No Second Chance." Preceding the sermon Dr. H. B. Yacoubi, a leading Armenian physician of Southern California, will give a brief address on "The Near East." Prof. Forrest Routt will lead community singing. In connection with the morning service Dr. Briegleb will preach a Thanksgiving sermon.

"WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?"
CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Is Los Angeles in a worse condition, morally, than other cities in the country? If so, who is to blame? Civic morality and immorality will be the general theme of an address by Dr. C. F. Winbigler tomorrow evening at the Central Baptist Church, the subject of the discourse being, "Who is Responsible for the Moral Condition of this City?" Following the address Dr. Winbigler will preach on "Feeling After God." At the morning hour the sermon topic will be "Reasons For Thanksgiving."

"THE RIGHT TO THINK."
ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL.

A special feature of the Sunday-school at St. John's Episcopal Church tomorrow will be the donation by the children of food, which later will be taken to the church Home for Children. November 21 has been designated "Ingathering Day" and each child will come with a special donation in order to stock the pantry for little ones who, without this help, would be in dire want. Following the Sunday-school hour Dr. George Davidson, the rector, will preach on the subject, "The Right to Think." At the evening service the sermon will be by Rev. Stanley Boggess.

TO UNVEIL TABLET.
HOLLYWOOD METHODIST.

A special patriotic service, consisting of the installation and unveiling of a bronze tablet containing the names of the men of the church who served in the great war, will be held tomorrow morning in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Hollywood. Rev. Willsie Martin, D.D., will preach an appropriate sermon on "A Tablet of Remembrance" and special music will be rendered by the musical talent of the church. In the evening Dr. Martin will preach on "John Calvin."

In the morning Dr. Herbert Booth Smith will preach on "God's Clarion Call to His Church" and will discuss "Mormonism, Romanism, Socialism and Immigration."

Having visited all the battlefields of Europe last summer, Dr. Elmer E. Helms, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, obtained a great fund of information which he is disclosing to his congregation in his Sunday evening sermons. Dr. Helms will preach tomorrow evening on "What God Did in the War." The subject for the morning discourse will be "What Christianity is Doing for Europe." Elaborate musical programs have been prepared for both morning and evening services.

Grieves, pastor of the Westlake Methodist Church.

MESSAGE TO YOUNG MEN.
TEMPLE BAPTIST.

Have the young men of Los Angeles any more right to smoke, gamble and sow wild oats than have the young women? Does any one ever have the right to do wrong? USE AX ON WET SUSPECT LIST.

Indictment Total Dwindles Under Jury Scrutiny.

Wind of Suspicion Now Veers Toward the Dealers.

Arrest on Perjury Charge is Feature of the Day.

With but a half day devoted to the so-called whisky investigation and the application of the ax to the list of prospective indictments, according to grape-vine communiques, the Federal grand jury got away yesterday to what might be called a false start in the wet inquiry.

At the close of the session of the body for the day, it was announced that there would be no further meeting of the inquisitors until Tuesday afternoon, when it is intended to wind up the entire investigation.

Several additional witnesses were heard on the sacramental wine question, during the day. Rabbi W. L. Goldberg being among the number. At the afternoon session, several cases involving violations of the Harrison narcotic law were heard and disposed of; the wet issue being shelved for the time being.

The delay in a return of indictments in the liquor cases, is due in a great measure to the fact that the testimony is so far reaching and involved, it is declared. When a final report is submitted it is proposed to clear up the whole question. It is rumored that no indictment will be returned in the case of at least one of the three well-known persons whose names have been freely mentioned as being involved in the violation of the national prohibition law and the Volstead Act. Whether indictments will be returned against the two others is problematic.

Liquor dealers are the class most concerned in the investigation, it is declared. That some of these have furtively taken advantage of the situation to make some easy money is not denied. Whether one of the local prohibition agents is involved is a question that was not fully determined yesterday.

The day was marked by the arrest of R. L. Patterson, a well-known business man of this city, charged with perjury in connection with his evidence before the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $1000 by U. S. Commissioner Long and his hearing set for November 27.

It is charged that on October 1, Patterson gave his chauffeur, Albert Wise, an order on the Cook-McFarland Company of this city, for four cases of port wine. But when Patterson went on the stand before the grand jury, he denied that he had done so. It is stated further that the chauffeur tried to make the case as easy as he could for his employer, but failed to impress U. S. Atty. O'Connor with the truth of his statements.

SUPERVISOR GOING TO ROADS MEETING.

CONFERENCE AT SACRAMENTO TO TAKE UP QUESTION OF TAX DIVISION.

Supervisor Cogswell, who is an advocate of the policy of the county maintaining highways through sixth-class cities except in the business districts, leaves tomorrow night to attend the legislative conference in Sacramento called by the State motor vehicle department.

Among other important matters to be discussed at this conference is the question of the division of the State automobile license tax money. Heretofore, half of this fund has been retained by the State, the other half being returned to the county in which it was collected.

Los Angeles county will receive from this fund this year approximately $728,000. An effort is being made by some of the cities to have a large portion of this money given to the cities. The conference will also discuss the loading of motor trucks, and whether overloading has a bad effect on the county highways.

HITS RATE INCREASE.

Company's Figures Based on Top of the Market, Says Hardy.

Declaring that the physical valuation placed on its plant by the Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage Company is greater than it should be, Chief Engineer Osborne of the Board of Public Utilities appeared before the State Railroad Commission yesterday to oppose the company's application for a 32 per cent increase in cold storage rates.

Rex Hardy, representing local produce men, pointed out to the commission that the company's valuation is based upon duplication costs today, which he declared unfair in face of the steady decline in prices.

The company was given ten days to file an argument and the opposition ten days to answer it. The cases of the Merchants Ice and Cold Storage Company and the National Ice and Cold Storage Company for similar increase in rates have been deferred to January 19.

"BIG HUTCH" WILL BE TRIED NEXT JANUARY.

Everett A. ("Big Hutch") Hutchings, said by county authorities to have been the head of a bunko ring in this vicinity, will be ready to go to trial January 31, it was stated yesterday in Judge Crail's court. Hutchings pleaded not guilty to a charge of having defrauded J. B. Norris, a farmer of Decatur, Ill., out of $51,000 in an asserted fake stock deal.

ENTRY IS CONTESTED.

A building stone entry of Lena Elkins on a quarter section of land near Filmore, was contested before Register Groves and Receiver Mitchell of the local Land Office yesterday by Arthur A. Alton, who asserts that the area is of a mineral character, in that within a short distance there are seventeen shallow oil wells in operation. The government has intervened through J. M. Favorite, chief of the field division.

A Danger Warning —Bleeding Gums

Are your gums tender? Do they bleed when brushed? If so—watch out for Pyorrhea.

This disease of the gums, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, not only destroys the teeth, but often wrecks the health.

In Pyorrhea, the gums become spongy, then recede; the teeth decay, loosen and fall out—or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about them. These germs lower the body's vitality and cause many diseases.

You can keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums prevents Pyorrhea—or checks its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean.

Start using it today. If your gums have receded, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

ON THE HOG.

Hogs on the hoof have been selling as low as $10 a hundred in the Kansas City market, but the man who sells us our pork chops has cotton stuffed in his ears and can't hear.

FEELS BETTER.

President Wilson is reported as having much improved in health since the anxiety over the election has passed. Maybe he is as pleased as the rest of us over the defeat of Gov. Cox.

SLIPPERY PLACES.

The man who received an anonymous note advising him to buy his wife a set of skid chains for a Christmas present isn't sure whether the suggestion is made in good faith or not. What a rainy season in a bone-dry country has to do with the wife is still a bit hazy to him.

CORN AND EGGS.

Corn is down to 70 cents a bushel, but the flint-hearted man who supplies the nourishment for the little brown hen refuses to read the handwriting on the wall. All forms of poultry refreshment are still going at around a nickel a pound. No wonder that eggs are nearing a dollar a dozen.

SOMETHING TO CHEW ON.

Washington gossip hints that the new owner of Catalina is being groomed for an ambassadorial position under the new administration. It takes gum to keep the jaws going. Bro. Wrigley stands highly with the new regime and can have what he chews. We will say that he would make a fine director of the mint.

SKIN GAMES.

The most popular sport in the country appears to be that of impersonating a Federal officer long enough to lay hands on somebody's private stock of rye. It is hazardous pastime, but there is no let-up in it, not even for a moment. The government is placed in the position of having to pursue and punish one class of law-breakers for preying upon another.

TURKEY TALK.

The good provider says that people should be very thankful this Thanksgiving because the table can be set for so much less in cost. The turkey, which sold for 60 cents a pound last year, is only 55 or 57 cents this season! On the strength of this remarkable reduction we are invited to give three cheers and clamor for another helping. If we can't find something more worthy of marvel than this slash in the prices of the American table bird it is likely to be a pale-pink Thanksgiving.

KITTENISH.

The announcement of the big stores that kitten's ear frocks are on the bargain counter awakens in mere man a little wonderment as to what the one woman would look like in a kitten's ear frock. Is kitten's ear a color or a weave? Is it a maltasey shade or a beavery fabric? Likewise if a girl wears a kitten's ear frock, is there any danger of her growing up into an old cat? Maybe the name refers to the cut of the garment and it is a mixture of cape and cowl. There are a lot of things we will have to learn before we can be considered as house broke. But whatever a kitten's ear frock is, it is practically certain to set some man back sixty-six simoleons if he essays to entertain his wife with one of them.

THE SPENDERS.

The Board of Equalisation has levied taxes of practically $50,000,000 against the corporations and industries of the State, which is about $8,000,000 more than for the last biennial period. At the same time this will be almost twenty million dollars less than the appropriations that are demanded. Looks as if the Legislature would spend $70,000,000 of other people's money and achieve another high mark in a State that already holds the world's record for administrative extravagance. There is no relief in sight. Apparently the taxpayers have grown to like it, as no candidate or party furnishes any pledge or promise for relief. The forty fat commissions go blithely on and their numbers are apt to be augmented rather than reduced.

THE ELEVENTH HOUR.

The executive council of the Federation of Labor admits that the country has needed production and that labor has not been doing its full share. The unionites indicate a willingness to be good, but do not know how to go about it. Of course, they still insist on maintaining the high wage scale and the short day. They are also quite sure that they must have pay-and-a-half or double pay for overtime, but they are willing to recommend that workers work while working. This is about as far as their magnanimity toward the employer will go. It is a good sign, however. Heretofore a job has not represented work, but wage. Pay day was the only day that counted, and if the unionite could evade giving anything in exchange for his envelope he esteemed it as a virtue. Loafing on the job had become a fine art and the man who could do the least work for the most money was given high place in the union-labor hall of fame. That is the chief reason why we have high prices today, but the organizations and the leaders will not admit it, because they do not propose to admit anything but their hunger and thirst—the passion for fattening on spoil.

PRINCE OF GRAFTERS.

Blind, blind indeed, must be the members of the New York Building Trades Council, and deaf as well, when they permit their chief walking delegate to graft on their labor to the extent of more than $1,000,000. The country had come to regadr the job of walking delegate for a labor union as something of a fat sinecure, but it was hardly rated so high.

Bob Brindell, president of the New York Building Trades Council, has been indicted for alleged extortions totaling $1,000,000. He blackmailed the building contractors of New York, according to the testimony given before the grand jury. When one of them secured a contract involving several thousands of dollars Brindell would demand his "cut." Unless they would come through with 5 per cent of the contract price he would call a strike; the job would be declared "unfair" and the contractors would have to pay 15 per cent to get the strike called off.

Brindell was absolute dictator over more than 100,000 workmen belonging to the building trades unions. When he ordered a strike they would down tools; when he announced that it had been "fixed up" they would return to work. Brindell's word was law. The unionites not only paid to him in dues a sum in excess of $30,000 a year, but, according to the grand jury testimony, they made it possible for him to blackmail contractors out of $1,000,000 on the side.

Such were the activities of a single one of the walking delegates of unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. There are more than 3500 of those walking delegates abroad in the land. Not all of them are in position to collect as much as $1,000,000; but any walking delegate with his union well under control is good for from $10,000 to $25,000 a year.

Little wonder that there should be an acute building shortage in New York City and that rents should rise to new altitudes. New York is practically under the thrall of the labor unions; and when a single walking delegate is able to extort $1,000,000 from the contractors it is not surprising that the cost of construction should be almost prohibitive. Brindell was but one of 500 walking delegates who represent the unions of New York and Brooklyn. On every job where their men were employed these walking delegates were in supreme control. A contractor who dared defy them was promptly placed on the blacklist. One contractor, Jacob Fradus, testified that because he refused to pay Brindell $25,000 in blackmail his business was ruined and he was forced into insolvency.

Brindell is said to have boasted that he was "no piker." He refused to accept blackmail in less than $1000 lots. Since he has been at the head of the New York Building Trades Council he is reported to have acquired a fortune of at least $2,000,000. Ten years ago he went to New York looking for employment. He became a dock worker, organized the men working on the docks and, with their support, he rose to be president of the Building Trades Council and one of the most influential leaders of organized labor in the country. He had been suggested as the successor to Gompers as the head of the American Federation of Labor.

Few will be surprised that one of Brindell's type should have worked the walking delegate game for all it was worth; but many will marvel that the men who were intelligent enough to construct the great buildings for which New York is famous should not have discovered that they were being used as pawns in Brindell's crooked game and not have been courageous enough to break away from his dictatorship.

When a contractor refused to submit to blackmail and Brindell called the men off the job the men would meekly obey. While Brindell was dickering with the contractor over the amount of tribute necessary to get the men back the workmen were taking a vacation without pay. Brindell, it appears, cared nothing for the wages they were losing. His only concern was the amount of money he could collect.

Surely there must be something about membership in labor unions, as they are conducted in this country, that fakes the initiative and self-determination out of men. How else can we account for the docility of that 100,000? Most of them suspected that Brindell was grafting; many of them were certain of it. They knew he was making millions at their expense; yet they were afraid to rebel, lest they be expelled from their unions. When 100,000 men continue for years to accept such dictatorship it is not surprising that the Red emissaries of Lenine and Trotzky should find the unions good propagating stations for their soviet ideas.

Apparently it is the system rather than the workman that is to blame. When men join a labor union they surrender their independence. They are simply the stones that the walking delegates build into a wall. One does not expect intelligence of the stones; neither, it would seem, must one expect it of labor unions. The conservative element is generally in the majority, but the conservatives permit the radicals to act as builders, to put the stones in place.

Three times within twelve months general strikes have been organized in this country with the intent of overthrowing American institutions and establishing a soviet republic. In every instance walking delegates of labor unions were prime instigators. The spirit of labor-unionism is easily diverted into revolution. Ever since the armistice the labor unions have been the greatest menace to free government in the United States. It now appears that some of the walking delegates have been collecting and putting away in safe places a few millions of the wealth against which they declaim in verbal wrath.

In New York 100,000 men helped a walking delegate to live like a prince of the "Arabian Nights." They were his slaves as men in other centuries have been slaves of other potentates. The same game has been tried in Los Angeles, but with only mediocre success; for the majority of the workingmen in Southern California are too wise to pay unnecessary tribute to walking delegates, to surrender their industrial independence for a card bearing the totem of the American Federation of Labor.

Perhaps the indictment of Brindell and a number of his associates may serve to enlighten conservative members of the labor unions of the country concerning the real object of those agitators who make such a parade of their allegiance to the cause of organized labor. For them it means organized plunder, robbing alike the members of the unions and their employers.

ANOTHER SOCIALIST FIASCO.

Premier Lloyd George's appeal for a plan to save British industry by increasing the output of the coal mines has led to disclosures which his government will hardly welcome. At the present time the British government is directing the operation of the coal industry. It fixes the wages for the miners and the price of coal; and it guarantees to the mine owners a fixed return on their investment.

This political meddling in industry has brought about the usual results. The clamor of the miners for more wages and shorter hours, accompanied by strikes or threats of strikes, has caused the government to increase wages until they are more than double the rate per hour prevailing before the war. But there has been a corresponding clamor from the public for cheap coal; and the government has yielded to a desire to court popularity by reducing the selling price of coal to a point where it is less than the cost of production. The politicians met a popular demand by doubling the wages of the miners; they yielded to a popular demand again by making only a small advance in the price of coal.

In each instance the government was acting within its powers. It possessed the right to fix the wages of the miners and the selling price of coal. But it cannot escape responsibility for the deficit created by putting the cost of production higher than the selling price of the product. One result already attained is a deficit of $200,000,000 and no provision in the British budget to meet it. There is a just clamor from the taxpayers that the users of coal pay the cost of production; but the miners are firm in their call for increased wages, and the government knows that if it increases the price of coal to the consumer it will be overthrown by an adverse majority in Parliament.

Such a condition could not exist if the government had not attempted to operate and control the coal industry. Whenever a government meddles in business the business is soon unprofitable and the government unpopular.

In seeking to find a way to increase the output of the mines the committee making the investigation discovered that one of the causes for a low output was the manner in which the mines were operated. In nearly every mine there are rich veins and poor veins. If the poor veins are being worked the miners cannot make much of a showing on output, irrespective of the amount of energy they put into a day's work.

Under the government guarantee the owner of the mine is assured his income regardless of the output; and it is plainly to his interest that the poor veins be worked and the rich veins be kept intact, to be mined when the government control and the government subsidy are ended. It appears that most of the mines have been operated by the former management, under the direction of the government agents; and it also appears that the working of the poor veins has been almost universal. The reduction in the production per miner has not been wholly his fault; at least half of it is due to hoarding the rich veins and working the poor ones.

Only under government control could such a system have developed. The government subsidy removed the incentive of the owners to increase production. It was but human nature that a majority of them should consider their private interest first, just as the miner considers his wages first and the consumer considers first the selling price of coal. The incident presents another illustration of the truism that when the incentive of profit is withdrawn industry is certain to languish.

Through government interference in the coal industry of Great Britain production has been curtailed, the cost of production per bushel has about trebled and a spirit of unrest has been fostered that threatens the peace and safety of the empire. When the first step in government operation was taken a beautiful theory was unfolded. The government was to operate the mines, market the coal, pay a fair rate of interest to the owners on their investments and make a clear profit of $500,000,000 a year, which was to be applied to the interest on the war debt. Like many other Socialistic theories it promised well, but the fulfillment was tragic in its disappointment. In place of a profit of $500,000,000 the taxpayers are now faced by a deficit of about $200,000,000.

How long, good Lord, how long must these demonstrations of the folly of Socialistic theories be continued before the mass of people of all civilized countries will learn that they must not look to governments for their living, but must continue to earn it in the good old way, by the labor of their hands and the sweat of their brow?

TO THE RED MAN.

Formal but belated demand has been made by the Society of American Indians that the red men be released from government and tribal control and be permitted to enjoy the rights and privileges of other native-born Americans. Representatives of the various Indian tribes claim, with good cause, that the modern Indians possess as high a degree of intelligence and as great an adaptability for caring for themselves as at least half a dozen groups that are now permitted to go into the melting pot and come out full-fledged citizens.

Those who have given a careful study to the Indian problem in recent years are inclined to agree that the period for tutelage and government paternalism has passed. Some even go to the extent of urging that it is politics and not a desire to give especial attention to the welfare of the Indians that keeps the present Indian Department and reservation system alive.

Admittedly some of the fattest sinecures under the government today are those in the Indian Department. It is the rendezvous of the incompetents. While not all those connected with the Indian Department are inefficient, it has come to be recognized that there is a greater percentage of incompetence in that department than in any of the others. If there were no jobs to be filled in connection with government supervision of the Indian tribes it is possible that the tribal distinction itself would soon disappear and the racial distinction would disappear also.

Experience has shown that the Indians are assimilated more readily than the negroes. They prove excellent pupils in the public schools and nearly all of them show excellent development when given the opportunity of securing a higher education. In American sports, where a combination of muscle and intellect are essential to success, Indians have won rare distinction. Chief Bender was one of the greatest pitchers in the history of American baseball. Chief Myers formed with Mathewson one of the greatest batteries ever developed in the National League. Jim Thorpe, another Indian, is one of the best all-round athletes known to American sports. The fame of the Carlisle Indian football team will live in the annals of that game. In fact, a greater percentage of Indian contenders have reached the top in American sports than of any other race.

To deny a people possessing such capabilities equal rights under our government is a palpable injustice. The Indians themselves have pointed out that, while hundreds of them fought in the Civil War to free the negroes, their courage was not rewarded by the freeing of the Indians themselves. Government control is little more than slavery for the Indians and, as education is generally diffused among them, it is not surprising that they are demanding that they be freed from political paternalism.

One of the duties of the new Republican administration is to take up seriously the problem of granting to the Indians emancipation from the present government reservation system. Let the lands held in trust for them be distributed as rapidly as possible. Let the public schools of the country be opened to them. Let us—in short—undo the wrong that political paternalism has perpetrated.

AROUND TOWN. By GALE.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

THE TOILERS.

I hired some honest workingmen
(to find such men long leagues I chased) to come around and fix my den, which time and weather had defaced. The carpenter arrived in state, he was attired in raiment glad; his touring car was simply great—eight cylinders the blamed thing had. The plasterer, a stalwart man, gave evidence that he was flush, for he rode in a fine sedan upholstered in the richest plush. The painter came, as he'd agreed, a man of rather haughty mien; he used to drive an old bay steed, but now he tools a limousine. The tinsmith came, an able cuss, who labors through a six-hour day, and I admired his handsome bus, a Model '21 coupe. And there was one who came to delve a ditch where concrete would be poured; his wagon was a supertwelve whose powerful engine chugged and roared. They parked their cars around my shack until the street, both ways, was blocked; and of the toiler's burdened back, throughout the day they warmly talked. They spoke of capital that sat in gilded ease and wore a grin and on ill-gotten gains grew fat, while honest toil grew lank and thin. They talked all day of tying cans to plutocrats and men of means, then drove away in rich sedans and touring cars and limousines.

WALT MASON.

THE LADY DOMESTIC.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

Anne is the educated daughter of an English university man. Father has an expensive family and, being merely a first-class scholar, a very inexpensive income. So Anne reviewed her chances and they looked a bit bleak. Marriageable men are scarce in England. Stenographic and other near-ladylike occupations are overcrowded. And although she is good-looking, she wasn't stage struck. Her accomplishments are limited, but her leanings are all towards housekeeping and she likes children, bless her heart.

So, to make a long story short, she decided to make domestic work a profession. There was a good market, everyone wanted that sort of help. The pay was good and mostly profit, since board and lodging are included, and in these days that is a rich item. She was, of course, up against snobby prejudices and her family shuddered. She could do housework at home for nothing and retain her caste, but to do it for someone else for good pay brought her too much within the scope of that hateful word "servant."

However, she tried it in England, with all its disabilities. And the disabilities can be very confounding. She was officially neither a servant, friend nor member of the family, although she had to efficiently fill all those positions. In a job like that everything depends upon "treatment"—and it is a mournful fact that home-keeping women are not very satisfactory employers. There is, however, some excuse for that. Men don't have to have their employees always with them, sharing home and meals and social interests. They probably would not be any more successful if they did. When women hire help they don't want to hire a social companion any more than men do, and this social question is the crux of the whole matter. If the domestic employee is actually one's social equal, as Anne naturally would be in any household, if not sometimes a social superior, it is very difficult to relegate her to the kitchen for meals, have her wait at table and generally submit her to an inferior position. On the other hand, no matter how nice and charming she is, there are few people outside one's own family, even one's dearest friends, whom one would wish to share every meal with and include in every social function. That is irksome and exacting for any hostess.

But Anne decided she was quite well-bred enough to obviate that difficulty—the one real difficulty of the situation. But it wouldn't quite work in England. Finally she corresponded with an American woman—it ought to be easier in America. Surely if she agreed to fulfill all the necessary domestic duties with complete efficiency, and to dine separately unless invited otherwise, like any other guest, it ought to work. She is now in California and her experience is interesting. With the proper sort of an employer it is obvious that this arrangement should satisfy all parties concerned, and solve the domestic-help problem in the most happy manner. If domestic labor can only be raised to this dignified status and deleted of its embarrassing social phases the result will be ideal. If women employers will appreciate that certain definite hours of leisure must be conceded, that no girl must be denied friends and recreation, that a nice, capable girl is entitled to nice consideration, nice, capable girls will soon take up this work as a profession in greater numbers.

And this thing can be done—Anne is proving it. I have seen scores of "lady helps" fail miserably, fail because they insisted upon the fiction of being "members of the family," fail because they felt housework derogatory and everlastingly pitied themselves, failed because they felt the continuous necessity for insistence upon their social standing, fail because they were neither a good servant nor a good friend. Anne is both a good worker and a considerate friend. She exacts no more courtesies than an average friend would claim, never intrudes herself unless invited—and consequently gets invited frequently upon her own merits and popularity, without any sense of obligation on either side. Being the social equal of her employer, she naturally exudes the social understanding necessary under the circumstances.

The American's Creed—for you and

NOBLESSE OBLIGE

By John Strong.

VIRILITY.

Noblesse Oblige is upstanding.

It stands for the joy of living by living squarely.

It stands for happiness that scorns to build on the other fellow's misery or distress.

It rids the usual "be good" of the flavor that makes it appear like mawkish sentiment or killjoy.

It involves no fear of punishment or hope of reward, here or hereafter.

It stands for tranquillity and serenity in place of hysteria and dissipation as the definition of happiness.

It takes nothing out of, but adds to the joy of living, because it robs none for its own satisfaction.

It puts into form for practical, everyday use such ancient saws as the Golden Rule and "be good and you'll be happy," because it is built on so practical a thing as human equality in the U.S.A.

It is as practical in running United States Steel as in helping a cripple across the street.

It is as practical in running the United States government as in renting a furnished apartment in Los Angeles.

It is a red-blooded rule of right.

And Where is It Going To?

"What is our English coming to?" exclaims the Fort Scott Tribune in alarm. "In one of our popular American monthlies for October we read that certain things have only tended to 'worsen' the situation. In a new novel we read of a fellow who was 'dreder' than he was before."—[Kansas City Star.

SHERIFF MUST UNDERGO TRIAL.

Fight to Avoid Defense on Dodge Charges is Lost.

Supreme Court Holds County Tribunal's Free to Act.

Accusations Based Upon Fees for Prisoners' Travel.

Sheriff Cline has lost his case in the State Supreme Court, in which he sought to prevent his trial before the Supreme Court on accusations made against him by Chairman Dodge of the Board of Supervisors, in which Mr. Cline was charged with neglecting and refusing to perform certain duties of his office in connection with fees collected for transporting prisoners. It was maintained in the petition of Mr. Cline that the Superior Court had no jurisdiction in the matter.

The Supreme Court finds no ground upon which to sustain the Sheriff in his attack upon the jurisdiction of the lower tribunal.

The opinion, written by Justice Shaw, is coincided in by Justices Wilbur, Olney, Lennon, Angelotti and Lawlor. Justice Sloane, having sat in judgment in the case when it was before Department Two of the District Court of Appeal, declined to act.

"I will abide by the court's decision in every respect," said Sheriff Cline, commenting upon the decision. "The principal reason the case was appealed to that court was to test the constitutionality of Section 772 of the Civil Code, relating to the removal of public officials from office. I will be ready for trial on January 3. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Dodge says he will win the case, I am perfectly satisfied to leave the matter entirely with the court."

"The Supreme Court has vindicated our position," said County Counsel Hill. "The decision simply means that Sheriff Cline must come into court and go to trial January 3. He tried to prevent a trial, and we succeeded in forcing him to trial on the twenty-two counts. There is no question in our mind that the charges will be proved and that he will be ousted from office."

Chairman Dodge of the Board of Supervisors stated he did not feel any comment from him at this time would be proper.

FOREST CHIEF HERE.

Inspects Reserves and Commends Work of Airplane Patrol.

District Forester Redington, with Inspector Charlton, is making a survey of the Angeles, Cleveland and Santa Barbara forest reserves. The work has been completed in the Cleveland reserve, and a trip will be made today to see how the work is progressing on the Arroyo Seco road improvement, the principal cost of which is being borne by Los Angeles county.

The efficiency of the airplane patrol, from Santa Maria to San Diego, covering an area of more than four million acres of the public land in the three forests named is a source of much gratification to the forest official. During the fire season running from May 22 to October 30, a period of 162 days, 112 fires were reported by this patrol. The service will be continued another year, beginning next May, and running until the last of October.

STATES CHURCH NEEDS.

Brotherhood Speaker Lists Things Essential to Success.

"The church has three kinds of people; the workers, the shirkers and the jerkers," declared Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Helms, new pastor of the First Methodist Church, when he spoke last evening before a meeting of the Church Brotherhood at the Y.M.C.A.

"Five things are needed to keep the church moving toward its goal," he said, "and these are loyalty, love for the job, living service, little service and lasting service."

Dr. M. H. Marvin, representative of the industrial department of the Y.W.C.A., spoke on social unrest and on industrial problems. Lack of harmony between capital and labor is costing the rest of the world too much, he declared.

MAYOR AND ACTRESS MAKE PLANE FLIGHT.

Mayor Snyder and Mme. Doraldina, the cinema actress and dancer, flew over the business section of Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, making the circuit from the Mercury Aviation Field to Seventh street and Broadway, up Broadway to First street, and back to the landing field in seventeen minutes. The trip was made to obtain a bird's-eye view of the downtown traffic congestion at one of the busy hours of the day.

COMPTON WINS DEBATE.

Compton High School defeated Inglewood High in a debate last night on the question of requiring the naturalization of the children of aliens at 21 instead of permitting them to automatically become citizens. The Compton team, which received a score of 196 points, was composed of Charles McReynolds and Frances Wernecke. Louise Cook and Philip Green represented Inglewood. Mr. McReynolds was given individual first place and Miss Cook second.

ATTORNEY KNIGHTED.

For services overseas during the war as a special commissioner of the Knights of Columbus, Attorney Joseph Scott of this city has been made a Knight of St. Gregory by the Pope. Word to this effect came yesterday from the supreme offices of the Knights of Columbus. Attorney Scott is the only person on the Pacific Coast who has received this particular mark of recognition from the Pope.

ALL-NIGHT SERVICES.

An all-night prayer service in the lobby of the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. will mark the close tonight of the week of prayer which began last Monday at noon. The program of speaking, music and testimony will begin at 8:30 p.m. Speakers will be Dr. Frederic W. Farr, Dr. W. S. Dysinger, Dr. Lloyd Darsie, Dr. A. C. Waddell and others. A similar service will be held tonight at the colored branch of the Y.M.C.A. on East Ninth street.

COULDN'T WALK BLOCK AT TIME

"Grandma" Maschek Was Dreadfully Weak.

Health Was Badly Run-Down She Says.

Tanlac Has Built Her Up Wonderfully.

"I believe I began taking Tanlac just in the nick of time," said Mrs. R. Maschek of 2305 Enterprise St., Los Angeles, recently. Mrs. Maschek is highly esteemed by all who know her and is especially beloved by children, who affectionately call her "Grandma."

"I had fallen off twenty-six pounds in weight and was so weak I could not walk a block at a time. My nerves were worn to a frazzle and I had a constant headache. My stomach was badly disordered and just seemed to trouble me one way or another all the time. I ate so little that it wasn't enough to do me any good and I would bloat up so bad I thought my breath was cut off and frequently I felt as if I was smothering.

"My ankles swelled up awfully and my limbs ached all the way from my hips down to my feet. For six years I had a constant pain in my side and couldn't stand up straight for five minutes at a time.

"I have taken only three bottles of Tanlac but I feel so well that it seems almost too good to be true. I haven't a pain about me at all and feel that many years have been added to my life. My appetite is wonderful and everything I eat digests properly. I am not one bit nervous, sleep soundly and have gained in weight. I feel perfectly well in every respect and just can't praise Tanlac enough."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Stores.—[Advertisement.]

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During those years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousand of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit—15 and 30 cents.—[Advertisement.

TWO ACCIDENTS PROVE FATAL.

Making Third Death in Week at Pasadena.

Crown City Declared World's Greatest Resort.

Community Plans Formation of Water District.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Nov. 19.—Two more women are dead from accidents in Pasadena, making the total for the week so far three. One fatality was from an auto accident, the other from burning.

Miss Marion Carter Grayson, aged 61 years, who was severely hurt when the auto in which she was riding collided with an Altadena street car Wednesday evening, died early this morning at Roosevelt Hospital. She came here several months ago from Hartford, Ct., to spend the winter. A sister, Miss Katherine Grayson, of Colorado Springs, has been summoned. An inquest probably will be held Monday.

Mrs. Libbie Newhard Shriver, wife of Thomas B. Shriver, Jr., of Philadelphia, died at her temporary home, 890 North Catalina avenue, from burns received two days ago when her dressing gown caught fire from a gas stove. Mrs. Shriver, her husband, two sons and daughter, came here a few weeks ago from the East for the winter.

The third woman in Pasadena to die as a result of accident this week was Mrs. Mary Hammond, whose death occured Monday.

PASADENA'S GREATEST RESORT.

"Pasadena is destined to be the greatest resort in the world," said Dr. Augustus A. Strong of Rochester, N. Y., the noted theologian, educator and world traveler who, with Mrs. Strong, has just arrived from the East to spend the winter at the Maryland.

"I have been in Europe fourteen times. I just returned from there. I have visited the principal resort regions in the United States and all localities in California, but I consider Pasadena the peer of them all," said Dr. Strong. "And I believe it has a great future; that it will be actually the most famous and most popular resort city in the world some day."

Dr. and Mrs. Strong visited the battlefields in France the past summer and spent several weeks with their son, Prof. Charles A. Strong and his wife, who is the daughter of John D. Rockefeller, at their villa near Florence.

Despite his 84 years, Dr. Strong traveled 2600 miles by auto in Europe. He says two-thirds of the farming country in France devastated during the war is under cultivation again. The towns and villages in the zone are still wrecks.

MAY FORM WATER DISTRICT.

Property owners in the Pasadena Heights district may form a water district and petition for water service from the Pasadena municipal water system, as a result of a hearing on the subject by the City Commission. The commission instructed J. G. Olmstead, chairman of the Pasadena Heights committee conferring with the Commission, that the presentation of signed petitions and the formation of a water district was the necessary procedure.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Nov. 19.—Col. Henry J. Hatch will assume his duties as commander of Los Angeles coast defenses at Fort MacArthur tomorrow, succeeding Maj. William Tidball, who will remain here on Col. Hatch's staff. Col. Hatch comes from Seattle, where he was in command of coast defenses there. During the late war he served as brigadier-general in France and made a brilliant record.

INSPECTS FACILITIES.

Chester H. Rowell, recently appointed member of the United States Shipping Board, is expected here to inspect port facilities and shipyards before leaving for Washington to assume his new duties, December 1. He will also visit San Francisco to get information on shipping conditions there before leaving for the East.

The joint Congressional Committee on Naval Affairs will be one day behind schedule of their inspection of the Submarine Base here, according to word received here today from San Francisco. The committee was expected Monday, but will not arrive until Tuesday morning. The party will be in charge of Mayor Snyder. MAY JOIN CITY.

Montecito Citizens Ask to Become Part of Santa Barbara.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 19.—A large section of Montecito is petitioning for annexation with the city of Santa Barbara. The lands to come in include the holdings of the Hon. William Gibbs McAdoo, and many other wealthy men, whose holdings embrace in all more than 1000 acres.

A petition is now in the hands of the City Attorney, requesting that the matter of annexation be submitted to a vote. Other Montecito land owners as far east in the valley as Olive Mill road are also preparing a similar petition.

These annexation movements grow out of the adoption by the city of a water policy similar to that followed by Los Angeles, providing water service only for those sections living within the boundaries of the city. The municipality has a water supply capable of meeting the wants of a city of 50,000 population, during two years' drought, and it is said can easily take care of all the needs of Montecito and all the outlying territory north, west and southwest as well as east of the town.

PLAN IMPROVEMENTS FOR FOREST RESERVE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 19.—Improvement of the entire Santa Barbara Forest Reserve from Los Angeles county boundary to Monterey is being planned on a systematic scale by C. E. Jordan, assistant district forestry engineer for the Pacific slope, co-operating with Forest Supervisors Sloan, R. L. Deering, chief of operations and others. It is proposed by a comprehensive survey now being made to allot the Federal funds for forest improvement for trail and road building, and other improvements.

BOOST STATE ROAD.

Blythe Chamber of Commerce After New Highway.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 19.—Sentiment for having the route from Phoenix to Los Angeles, a part of the transcontinental highway, cross the Colorado River at Ehrenberg, has been crystallized at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at Blythe, which was attended by the members of the Board of Supervisors and a number of other county officials.

The officials returned last night from a tour of several days through the Coachella and Palo Verde valleys. Resolutions adopted indorsed the route from Phoenix to Los Angeles by way of Ehrenberg, Blythe, Mecca and Riverside. The sum of $300,000 has been appropriated for the proposed State highway connecting Blythe and Mecca.

In the Coachella Valley, where it is proposed to expend $322,000 for road work, through a bond issue and other funds to be provided by the Supervisors, the officials presented the alternative of a nine-foot concrete roadway and a sixteen-foot oiled macadam, the latter being favored for desert roads.

Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add one-half shortening and rub in lightly with fingers; add water slowly until of right consistency to roll out. Roll out very thin; put on in small pieces remaining shortening; fold upper and lower edges in to center; fold sides in to center; roll out thin and put on pie plate.

Custard

½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup cold milk

PICTORIAL CONCERT.

PHILHARMONIC PROGRAM HAS BUHLIG AS SOLOIST.

By Edwin Schallert.

With the glow of Cesar Franck's ever-ennobling celestial fire as a high light, Walter Henry Rothwell presented his second symphonic canvas before a notable audience yesterday afternoon at the auditorium. The program given by the Philharmonic Orchestra, while it lacked the broad contrasts of the opening symphonic offering, commanded an acquiescence of approval from the listener because of the excellence and balance of the renditions. The numbers, however, attracted more through their pictorial brilliancy, at times well-nigh opalescent, than their formal worth.

The soloist for the concert was Richard Buhlig, known to many of his hearers through his two lectures on programs presented by the orchestra. He played Tschaikowsky's Piano Concerto in B flat minor, one of the most turbulent and highly colored of concerted works.

Particularly striking was Mr. Buhlig's interpretation of the barbaric mood of the final movement—which is typical of the composer. Balance was lacking between soloist and orchestra in the rather heavy opening movement, Buhlig inclining to force the issue in favor of his instrument. I found interest in studying the tone quality of this pianist. You might call his tone brilliant—but it is a brilliance that is subdued. Even the most crystalline passage is not without its shadow. He imbues his interpretation with a vigor that is rare, and emotionalizes not at all—yet the element of feeling is not absent from his scholarly command.

Cesar Franck—and the Symphony in D minor! When I think of this composer I always recall a flame-tipped sunset cloud, its colors as intangible as the fires of faith which Franck expressed in his music. His symphonic work lacks form, yes. Nevertheless, the first movement is in his finest style, and Rothwell gave it with discriminating balance in effect.

The mists rise in the second and third sections of this work. They are attractive, but nothing more. They are great only in their reflections of the essence of that inspiration which always belonged to Franck. It was apparent that Mr. Rothwell's interpretation of them was exceedingly well thought out.

A critic once remarked to me anent the performance of "Oberon" at the Metropolitan Opera that when you had heard the overture you had gotten your money's worth. Bodansky, of course, was the main reason, by virtue of his superlative conducting.

But the same remark applies in a degree to that other overture of Weber to "Der Freischutz" as played by the Philharmonic at the present concert. It is an enriching and colorful presentation that the orchestra gives, and I am sure you will find it the acme of enjoyment.

Hughes Coming West.

Rupert Hughes, the author, will shortly be on his way West again to spend several months here writing original stories for the screen. This interesting item was mentioned by Abraham Lehr, vice-president of the Goldwyn organization, upon his return here yesterday after three weeks in New York in conference with Samuel Goldwyn, F. J. Godsol and other home-office officials.

Mr. Lehr announced several important productions will be started here shortly. Stories by Leroy Scott, Charles Kenyon and a feature by Booth Tarkington will shortly be put on the celluloid.

"We are concentrating our attention on story values," said Mr. Lehr. "The public is now demanding more than anything else that photoplays shall have logical, vigorous, well-developed plots. Action must be combined with thought, and there must be characterization and motivation. Screen plays must appeal to the same class of people who attend the best legitimate theaters."

Which would seem to be in line with certain statements made by Adolph Zukor, president of Famous Players-Lasky, when he said a few days ago that picture plays would shortly make a bid at as long runs as stage plays.

If You Can't Flirt, Why—

There may be persons in this city (though the Orpheum P. A. says this rather doubtfully) who do not know how to flirt, and if so, it is declared that they can ascertain the modus operandi next week at the Orpheum. The headline act is to be given over to the weighty matter of flirting and anybody who is sensitive as to his ability may gain confidence by viewing the act, it would appear.

New Fiske Play.

Minnie Maddern Fiske, the noted emotional actress, is getting ready to open in a new play in New York, entitled "Wake Up, Jonathan," according to advices from the East. She was seen here last season in "Mis' Nelly of N'Orleans."

Ruth Chatterton, Too.

Ruth Chatterton is also scheduled to appear in a new play. Some mystery seems to surround this, however, although the most credible rumors seem to indicate that it is "Mary Rose," by J. M. Barrie.

Oriental High Lights.

Oriental color will apparently add considerable to the interest in the Associated First National production of "Parrot & Co.," made under the directorship of Sidney A. Franklin and for which Albert Kaufman is sponsor.

The cutting of this feature has been completed and Mr. Kaufman is to leave for New York Monday to deliver the negatives to the Associated First National officials in New York.

Many of the scenes are laid along the Ganges River at Benares. Native Hindu women are shown bathing in the sacred river. Other episodes are supposed to be laid in the famed Taj Mahal, one of the most beautiful temples in the world, constructed of white marble.

The cast of the picture includes Sylvia Breamer, Richard Dix, Molly Malone, Herbert Prior and Lloyd Whitlock.

Musical Sketches.

A novelty is to be presented by Carll D. Ellinor, conductor of the California Theater Orchestra, next week, called "Musical Moments." It will include the showing on the screen of famous composers, suitably portrayed. Whenever a certain composer is flashed on the silver sheet one of his favorite musical numbers will be played by the orchestra.

Patton will preach on "A Message for Thanksgiving," speaking of the significance of the day as a religious feast and a recognition of home and family life. CLASH ON PLAN FOR TECHNICAL SCHOOL.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE OPPOSED BY CITY'S VOCATIONAL TRAINING STAFF.

The Citizens' Advisory Committee met with the Board of Education last night to outline to the board the general program of the committee to establish an institute of technology.

About fifty business men, representing practically every line of endeavor, were present to represent the committee. I. H. Rice, president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and chairman of the committee, outlined the plan for the proposed institute. He declared that the business interests are behind the plan and that no one familiar with the need for trained men in this, and other cities, questioned the need of such an institution.

A number of other business men made short talks, telling of the urgent need for qualified artisans in their respective lines, particularly jewelers, printers, machinists, electricians and opticians.

Members of the teaching staff were out in force and opposed the plan. W. S. Keinholtz, supervisor of vocational education, declared that the present system is the best known, taking exception to the statement that graduates of the high school vocational classes are not qualified to hold good positions.

Charles McCormick, president of the School Board, said the matter will be taken under advisement and a decision announced later.

DOLL DRAWING TONIGHT.

The drawing contest will be held to decide the winner of the Carmel Myers doll shortly before 9 o'clock tonight at the Superba Theater. Tickets for this contest have been given out this week to all patrons attending "The Gilded Dream." The bisque image of Carmel, dressed in a duplicate of a dress she wears in one of the scenes of "The Gilded Dream," has been on display in the lobby of the theater.

Under the new plan, C. L. Wrenn becomes city passenger agent, R. M. Rowan comes from San Diego as chief clerk of the freight department and F. E. Middleton becomes traveling freight and passenger agent.

Occidental and Pomona Football Elevens Fight Out the Conference Championship Today.

TIGERS READY FOR SAGEHENS.

Bitter Football Rivals Clash for Conference Title.

"Pud" Hadden to Start Game as Oxy's Right Half.

Caltekx Meet Redlands; Whittier Tackles S.B.U.C.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

The curtain will be lowered on the southern conference football season today with Occidental and Pomona coming together for the umpty-umpth time to battle for the championship. The festivities are scheduled to take place on Patterson Field, starting at 2:30 o'clock. A game between the freshman teams of Oxy and Cal Tech holds the boards, beginning at 1 o'clock.

THE BIG ATTRACTION.

While the Tigers and the Sagehens are offering the attraction de luxe of the wind-up of the 1920 conference schedule the Caltekx, holding third place in the percentage column with two wins and two losses, will tangle with the Redlands Bulldogs on the latters' door mat. Redlands is resting on the sixth perch, but hopes to boost itself higher at the expense of the Engineers.

Caltek walked through S.B.U.C. last Saturday, winning by a score of 13 to 0 with four second string men in the line-up. "Jitz" Lavagnino had a pleasant afternoon, scoring a touchdown, booting a couple of drop kicks between the uprights and kicking two goals from touchdown. The Engineers expect him to be a mighty factor in routing Redlands, which nosed out the S.B. U.C. team, 27 to 21.

The other conference game is that between Coach Perry's Whittier Poets and the lowly S.B.U.C. eleven to be played on the field of the local university.

SMALL HOPE.

Odds of three to one have been offered that the blue-backed Sagehens of Capt. Ed Covington will beat the jungle cats of Capt. Armand Powers on the Eagle Rock field. Advance thinkers and close followers of the dope can find no ground upon which to base an Occidental victory.

The fight of the Orange and Black gladiators against the Pomona eleven is an established spectacle and an annual feature of years' standing. Fight seems to be the only asset upon which the Tigers can hope for an even reasonably close game.

Man for man, the Blue and White players are eminently superior to the Occidentalities. Rich and Cooper, the ends, are fast and cover Covington's punts in wonderful fashion. Against U.S.C., the toughest team in the south, they were on Leadingham all the time and never let him get back for more than a couple of yards. Denebrink, Bell and Bruce Elliott as tackles are big, powerful men and the latter in particular is a splendid man to open holes for the short off-tackle runs, which Pomona employs to such good advantage.

POWERS MUST HUMP.

Chambers and Baker, the guards, are good scrappy men. In the center of the line Warren Elliott hardly ranks up to Powers of Occidental, though the latter has come far from approximating his 1919 form this year.

Behind the line there is no comparison between the two elevens. Covington, Voorhies and Willson are in a class by themselves. Once through the line these birds fit down the field like a streak of lightning. Fulton of Occidental is fully as good a line bucker as Chuck McClain, in spite of the handicap of a first year at the game, and as a punter he seems to have carved a niche that will force Covington to do his best to uphold his honors.

Occidental has a pair of good ends in Long and Davidson, but both are very light. Long delivered against Pomona last year, and won a berth on the all-star conference team.

At the tackle berths, Pomona's experienced men have the edge on Jones and Hitch. The latter has been playing guard most of the year. Corey and Pearson are both new men in the Tiger line-up, and what they will do against the Pomona veterans is problematical.

ALL GREEN.

Behind the line Coach Stanton has a backfield not a man of which was varsity material last year. Norton, the quarterback, got into the Pomona game as a sub, but the others, Roberts, Fulton and Haddon, were green to start the season.

Unless the dope goes terribly askew Pomona should win by three or four touchdowns. Coach Stanton frankly admits he doesn't know what his men will do. Inexperienced men sometimes play a wonderful game. Other times they go up in the air and the opposition has a walkaway. Much depends on the way the "breaks" go.

Occidental men of the present and past gathered last night for the final rally before the "Big Game," and this morning they will parade the streets of the city. The line-ups:

No.	POMONA.	Weight.
2	Bruce Elliott, left tackle	207

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—Mike Kelley, manager of the St. Paul American Association baseball team, will replace Gavvy Cravath next year as manager of the Philadelphia Nationals, according to an announcement today by William F. Baker, president of the Phillies. Mr. Baker said Cravath has been given his unconditional release. Although Kelley has not yet signed a contract Baker said they had agreed on all details.

There will be a meeting of the Southern California Professional Golfers' Association at Spaulding's on Monday night, it was announced yesterday by Ed Gayer, who is in charge of the indoor golf school at that store. Matters of importance concerning the golf meets for the "Pros" will be taken up at that time, and the open championship event will be officially awarded.

MONROVIA, Nov. 19.—By winning a 14-0 game from Monrovia High this afternoon Glendale High School took the championship of the Central League, on percentage scores. The Glendale team outweighed Monrovia seventeen pounds to the man, but the local boys played a brilliant game, netting several big gains through forward passing. Brownson and Shaw starred for Monrovia. The first touchdown and goal made by Glendale was in the first quarter and the second in the fourth quarter.

Many Drivers to Spin Cars Over Speedway Today.

Whole herds of drivers have promised to make the empty stands at the Los Angeles Speedway resound with the roar of their exhausts today, quite a number of pilots who have not previously appeared being among those who plan a busy day on the local track. The speedway will be closed up tight on Sunday and all the drivers want to get their cars tuned up today, if possible for Thursday's big 250-mile dash for the title.

Starter Fred Wagner made his first visit to the local bowl yesterday and was positively pop-eyed with amazement at the completeness of the million dollar plant. Its splendid arrangements for taking good care of an enormous crowd particularly pleased the veteran official and he said that the big saucer of concrete is without question the finest thing of its kind in this country, if not in the world.

Arrangements for the big aero show which immediately preceedes the race are rapidly coming to a head and Manager Dick Ferris says that the exhibits, both on the ground and in the air, will be absolutely the greatest in the history of aviation in Southern California. A complete showing of military and commercial airplanes will be on view and Barr's Flying Circus, which is to perform over the speedway about noon, promises to do things quite without precedent when it comes to thrills.

MANY TRAPSHOOTERS IN BIG TOURNAMENT.

Close to seventy-five local and visiting trapshooters are expected to contend in the turkey shoot at the Los Angeles Gun Club tomorrow. Many turkeys are up as prizes. Secretary Fred H. Teeple announces that a turkey lunch will be served the contenders and their friends.

Event 1—25 targets, 16 yards, fourth qualifying round on B. H. Dyas trophy.

Event 2—25 targets, distance handicap, 16 to 20 yards, 5 turkeys, class shooting, $1 entrance.

Event 3—Miss and out, 50 targets, entrance to be divided 60-40 per cent. Two turkeys in this event, entrance money on turkeys prorated.

Event 4—Two-man or team race, 100 targets each. Two turkeys in this event, entrance money on turkeys prorated.

Event 5—11 targets, 3 targets each shot from the 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20-yard mark. Two turkeys in this event, entrance money on turkeys prorated.

Event 6—25 targets, 16 yards, class A, B, C, D, E, with a 10-pound turkey in each class. No charges for turkeys in this event.

Event 7—Two-man team race at 5 pairs of targets each man. Two turkeys in this event, entrance on turkeys prorated.

UNBEATEN UNITEDS TO PLAY SANTA MONICA.

The L.A.A.C., another unbeaten combination, will travel to Tournament Park to give battle to Pasadena. The Long Beach United and the Sons of St. George will stage their game at Slauson and Compton, while the schedule will send the Overseas against the Gordons at Long Beach. With the United and the Athletic Club eleven tied, interest will center on their battles.

Under a new ruling in accordance with the adoption of by-laws to conform to the State Association, the player limit has been raised to eighteen, it was announced today.

NEW YORK AMERICANS WITH WEALTH OF INFIELD TALENT, APPARENTLY PLAN CHANGES.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

A flock of Morse dots and dashes comes out of the East to the effect that Johnny Mitchell of the Vernon club has been sold to the New York Americans.

This is interesting, but does not come under the head of information, as it has been known for some weeks here that Mitchell would have a tryout on big time.

Baseball folks are wondering just what disposition the Yankees will make of Mitchell, and Huggins already has a very capable infield. However, there are signs that it is to be broken up. That seems to be a Yankee trait. Instead of making the most of the good material available, the Yankee ownership or management is forever in quest of new talent.

Pipp, Pratt, Peckinpaugh, Meusel, Ward and Fewster give the club a wealth of infield material, any part of which could be used by almost any big league club, and yet the Yanks have acquired Mitchell and Joe Dugan from the Athletics, a very capable player who was dissatisfied in Philadelphia.

Pipp is slated for a change, although still a good ball player. Del Pratt told the writer just before the season closed that he intended to retire. Whether he will stick to the decision remains for the spring to determine. Pratt played a bang-up game, was one of the comebacks of the year and his contract calls for approximately $10,000, it is said.

Mitchell, although generally regarded as strictly a shortstop, played a good third in the smaller minors, and might be translated into a second baseman to succeed Pratt, where he would have to fight it out with Dugan, if Del remains in the dark.

Roger Peckinpaugh, although hitting better the past two years than any time in his career, is a veteran and gives the impression that he is beginning to lose the keen edge on his fielding. So it may be that Huggins plans to pit Mitchell against Peck, or carry him as an understudy for a year, permitting him to get into the game gradually by performing utility roles. Again, it is possible, he will use the clever little Tiger in a trade.

Mitchell will not set the majors on fire by his fielding. There are sensational shortfielders warming the bench up there because they are stick shy or lack experience. But Johnny is a steady individual, knows the game and should outhit some of the shortstops now on the job.

Huggins has rounded up an army of recruits, and the Tigers will get ample compensation in players for the loss of Mitchell.

Esnick is believed to have made one of his characteristically good deals, as well as giving Johnny a rather belated chance in the majors.

HOT STRUGGLE IS LOOKED FOR.

Yale and Harvard All Set for Clash Today.

Crimson Expects to Win on Its Finesse Play.

Eli's Students Have Confidence in Their Lads.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Harvard-Yale game, the last of the great eastern intervarsity football classics, is the outstanding contest of tomorrow's gridiron schedule. Regardless of the two defeats which mar the Eli's record and the tie game registered between Harvard and Princeton, interest in the annual battle of the Crimson and Blue transcends that centering in any of the other games.

Harvard will enter the contest in the Yale bowl an overwhelming favorite over the home eleven, based to a great extent upon the expectedly weak showing of Yale against Princeton last Saturday. A careful analysis of that game would appear to indicate that the lapses of the Elis were more mental than physical, and a radical improvement in the Yale play is not only possible, but probable.

LIES IN FINESSE.

Man for man, the Blue line and backfield have nothing to fear in a physical contact with the Harvard eleven. It will be in the finesse of coaching and individual play that the Cambridge eleven may excel. The Yale ends and tackles were easily decoyed or forced out of proposition by the Princeton offense a week ago, but with the lesson then learned it is not likely that similar tactical errors will be shown against Harvard.

The Yale student and alumni body has given unexampled evidence of faith in the Eli eleven, and the resultant do or die spirit of the team should go far to make up for technical errors. It appears almost certain that Yale will enter the contest stronger in several positions than was the case in the Princeton game. If the proposed eleventh-hour changes are made and the Blue combination develops an alert, fighting spirit, a real Yale-Harvard football battle may be expected.

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Nov. 19.—Legions of football followers took possession of New Haven tonight on the eve of the annual Yale-Harvard game, never in the long history of the gridiron classic has there been such an outpouring of prospective spectators twenty-four hours before the contest.

Hotel and garage accommodations were out of the question for late comers, who were forced to seek overnight quarters distant in towns and hamlets, while numerous parties of autoists from New York or Boston, learning of the congestion, delayed their arrival until tomorrow. Garage keepers estimated that more than 15,000 automobiles will be parked here before tomorrow morning. Open-air parking space is bringing from $10 to $25.

IMMENSE CROWD.

According to official estimates fully 75,000 spectators will witness Saturday's contest, of whom a trifle more than 74,000 will pay admission. Notwithstanding the enormous seating capacity of Yale bowl, tickets are unobtainable except a few in the hands of speculators, and these are bringing from $30 to $25 for seats located along the field, and a brisk business was done at these figures.

The Harvard squad, consisting of more than fifty players and attendants, arrived here shortly after noon and held signal drill and kicking practice in the bowl later in the afternoon.

The local forecaster predicted a clear, warm day for the thirty-ninth game between Harvard and Yale since 1875.

KID LEWIS PUTS BASHAM TO SLEEP.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Kid Lewis tonight knocked out Johnny Basham, former welterweight champion of England, in the nineteenth round. The bout was for the welterweight championship of Great Britain, which Lewis wrested from Basham three months ago. It was a hard-fought contest and anybody's victory up to the eighteenth round, when Basham, although bleeding profusely from an injured ear, was fighting gamely.

In the nineteenth round Lewis sent his opponent down for the count of eight and then, when Basham arose, landed a terrific right to the point of the jaw. Basham went down and was counted out.

All-Stars Ready to Spank the White Sox.

With Speed Martin of the Chicago Cubs on the mound the All Star baseball team will try to put the skids under the White Sox (colored) nine at the Sox Park, East Fourth and Anderson streets, this afternoon.

The same teams will play tomorrow with Walter "Duster" Mails, whom Joe Pirrone, the Spalding booker, secured at considerable expense and the waste of good telegraph blanks, on the hillock for the Sox. The big ace of the Cleveland world champions is expected to pack the park to capacity. Today's line-up:

CLINE-CLINE TEAM TO PLAY EL MONTE.

The Cline-Cline Company baseball team will journey to El Monte tomorrow, where a game with the El Monte club is scheduled by the managers' association.

According to Manager Otto Finley, the Cline team will have either Reiger or Tally as pitchers. Also, that both Sam Ferraris and Eddie Miller are hitting better than .500.

YACHT CLUB IS TO HOLD ITS ELECTION.

According to Commodore Albert Soland, the annual election of officers at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club will be held December 4. Great interest in the affair is being created. The Newport-Harbor Yacht Club has come to the front fast. It started less than two years ago and now is the strongest on the Coast, with a full membership list of 300 and a waiting list of close to twenty-five Southern California sportsmen.

J. MITCHELL TAKEN OVER BY YANKEES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. — Miller Huggins of the New York American League baseball team, announced today the acquisition of J. Mitchell, an infielder, from the Vernon (Cal.) club of the Pacific Coast League. Six players, possibly seven, will be turned over by the Yankees for the California star, but Huggins has not yet made public their names.

GOLF PROS TO MEET NEXT MONDAY NIGHT.

In tomorrow's soccer games the unbeaten United squad will be pitted against the Santa Monica eleven on the latter's ground. The champions who have been going at a fast clip will find a worthy opponent in the rejuvenated Saints, who have strengthened their team with proven material. Their newest acquisition is Walter Hogarth, a star of the Fall River League.

LANDIS TO SEE GAME.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Judge K. M. Landis, newly-appointed head of organized baseball, has accepted the invitation of Judge McQuaide, treasurer of the New York Giants, to attend the Army-Navy football game at the Polo Grounds November 27 as the latter's guest, it was announced today.

NEW YORK GIANTS TO INVADE MEXICO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The New York Giants are considering an invasion of Mexico, it was learned today.

If the new Mexican government is recognised, Manager McGraw said he would take his team to the Mexican capital for a series of exhibition games.

MARTIN MATCHED AGAIN.

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—Bob Martin, heavyweight boxing champion of the American Expeditionary Force, has been matched with Capt. Bob Roper of Chicago for a ten-round bout to a decision here next Wednesday.

BEARS TO HUG CARDS TODAY.

Final Games of Conference Grid Race on Tap.

Oregon Aggies and Varsity to Claw Each Other.

Record Crowds Expected at the Contests.

BY WARDE FOWLER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19. — California and Stanford will play football tomorrow even if it rains a couple of inches every quarter of the game. This afternoon the sun was right on the job and glared down upon the Bears and Cards alike until the high-powered Golden Gate fog rolled in and blotted everything out of sight.

Weather sharps up here have been sniffing this fog all evening and now declare that tomorrow will be an ideal football day with no rain and large gobs of sunshine.

BEARS FAVORITES.

The University of California team enters tomorrow's battle a heavy favorite. Even money is now being placed that the Bears will run up a twenty-seven-point lead over the Cards. Bear enthusiasts even declare that if Muller, McMillan, Majors, Latham, Cramner, Dean, Berkey, Erb, Sprott, Toomey and Morrison were at Stanford they would comprise the Stanford varsity team. And they add that if Pelouse, Pershing, Cravens, Righter, Levy, McAlpine, Adams, Schlaudemann, Templeton, Wilcox and Patrick were at California not one of them could make the first team.

This is certainly rubbing it into the Card outfit, but there isn't a grain of truth in the overenthusiastic California assertions. The Bears have two good men for practically every berth and the second-string candidates are right up with the topnotchers.

HAS TO RUSTLE.

Stanford, on the other hand, is having to rustle to get one good man for each position and injuries to several of the leading lights early in the game would leave things in a rather complicated mess. Fred Adams, Stanford's right end, will not be able to start the game. Pelouse, the other end, is not expected to remain intact for any considerable length of time. So the Cards are facing a stiff proposition.

Head Coach Powell said, "I have never attempted to predict the outcome of games which my teams have participated and shall not do so today. Stanford is unable to put her full strength on the field while California has more than three full elevens. Injuries contracted in the Washington game have made it next to impossible to accomplish the things we wanted to in the past few weeks.

CARDS HAVE FAITH.

"But Stanford is not downhearted. While the players realize the Herculean task confronting them they believe they are capable of greater things under pressure. I look for the men to play a game that will do credit to Stanford."

There's a kick in the statements of the rival captains. Art Wilcox of Stanford says, "The team will come through when the time comes with the well-known Stanford spirit." Capt. Majors of California claims that "Stanford spirit is the bunk. We'll show the boys what real spirit is when we get started at California Field."

IN FAIR SHAPE.

In spite of recent rains the turf field at Berkeley is in very fair shape. It will not be as fast as the coaches had hoped. But the game will not be a battle in the mud by any means. With a slow field, of course, fumbles may play an important part in the final score. If some of the Bear experts muff a few of Dink Templeton's boots there may be wild doings. Breaks are being counted on by both sides to have an awful effect on the final count.

The biggest crowd that ever watched a Stanford-California football game will pack the stands tomorrow. Twenty-eight thousand tickets, full capacity, were sold several days ago.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Final games of the 1920 Pacific Coast conference football race will be played tomorrow when the University of California meets Stanford University at Berkeley, Cal., and the University of Oregon plays the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, Or.

Both of tomorrow's games are traditional contests between old rivals. In addition the Berkeley game will decide the conference championship, and possibly the winning team will be asked to play an eastern eleven at Pasadena, Cal., New Year's Day.

BERKELEY, Nov. 19.—No changes from earlier line-ups were made in the announcement here of the names of the men who will represent the University of California in the game against Stanford University tomorrow. The California line-up follows:

R. A. Barkey, Los Angeles, left end.
C. J. Dean, Fullerton, Cal., left tackle.
C. C. Nelson, San Diego, left guard.
George Latham, Alameda, center.
L. B. Cramner, Fresno, right guard.
Dan McMillan, Los Angeles, right tackle.
H. F. Muller, Oakland, right end.
C. F. Erb, Los Angeles, quarterback.
A. B. Sprott, San Diego, left half.
J. F. Toomey, Fresno, right half.
J. W. Morrison, Berkeley, fullback.

Stanford's representatives will be:

R. F. Pelouse, Eagle Point, Or., left end.
A. R. McAlpine, Pasadena, left tackle.
R. E. Cravens, South Pasadena, left guard.
C. E. Righter, Campbell, Cal., center.
C. N. Levy, Prescott, Ariz., right guard.
B. H. Pershing, Oakland, right tackle.
K. W. Schlaudemann, Pasadena, right end.
R. Schlaudemann, Pasadena, quarterback.
C. A. Wilcox, captain, Pasadena, right half.
R. L. Templeton, Downey, Cal., left half.
J. E. Patrick, Palo Alto, fullback.

Until the announcement was made today it was thought Fred L. Adams of Sacramento would play left end; H. Deems, Long Beach, right guard, and Pelouse, right end.

Six Elevens to Meet in Conference Game.

Snappy Buckeyes Have Undefeated Record.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The conference will close its season tomorrow with every action and six elevens fighting the first four places in the standing.

The final day of the season is expected to bring forth decisive games. The race this year has been one of the tightest on record, elevens tonight were reported to be in top shape and in most cases there was little to choose between the opposing teams.

CLEAN SLATE.

Illinois and Ohio State, champion and runner-up respectively last year, again will meet in a game which will decide the championship. Ohio comes with an undefeated record, and is expected to be a slight favorite over the Illini, who lost to Wisconsin by the fact that, the game was played on Illinois' home field. Illinois looked upon by some to have a slight advantage.

While the first place honors hinge in the outcome of the game, the next three positions in the conference are also at stake. Wisconsin, present such a combination that Wisconsin, Indiana, Purdue, Chicago are fighting for third place, the outcome resting on the outcome of today's contests.

FOR LAST PLACE.

The ripple of excitement which followed the appearance in certain social circles in this city of Alberto Sichofsky, who is said to have asserted that he is a Russian count, aroused the proportions of a wave Monday when word was received at the District Attorney's office that he had been arrested in Albuquergue, N. M., his one-time valet, on charges of grand larceny and embezzlement. The interesting and lively parties of Sichofsky gave at his former home, 139 South Ardmore avenue, his liveried chauffeur and his fawning valet all contributed, say former acquaintances, to an unusual interest taken in him by movie picture people and some of the leaders in society. He was said to have been a familiar figure at leading cafes in the city, among them the Montmartre, and to have attracted general attention.

Sichofsky and Francisco L. Amador, his valet, mentioned in a complaint issued here as John Doe, were arrested at the request of Detective Sergeant Jones. They are charged of grand larceny of $3000 from Dr. O. M. Justice of the Black Building, and of $4500 from Dr. S. Brooks of the Hollingsworth Building, and to have committed two other counts charging them with defrauding the two physicians of the same sums. According to information given the District Attorney, Sichofsky was paid the two sums to purchase oil leases near Huntington Beach, but his accusers say he failed to do so.

While the first of their arrest the two were about to board a train for Albuquerque to French Lick Springs, Ind., and had $4200 in currency with them.

ON DRUG CHARGES.

Walter Abbey and John A. Lent, alleged dope peddlers, were taken into custody by inspectors Bright and Brooks yesterday afternoon in the lobby of a bank at Sixth and Main streets on the charge of selling $10 worth of heroin to an officer. They were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Long and held in a bond of $1000. Their preliminary hearing is set for December 21.

Damage Suit Against Several Men for Entering Home.

Clara Handy demands $10,000 damages in a suit filed yesterday against Thomas B. Nichols, Ben Halstead, Eugene U. Blasingame, Patterson and others, as the result of a so-called brawl at the home of her parents, which she was residing before her marriage to Homer Allen Handy. The complaint states the men attempted to enter the bedroom of Mrs. Handy's mother while the latter was ill. Mrs. Handy says she was struck by the defendants.

SCOUT TROOPS TO PARADE TODAY.

Escorted by mounted police, and organized by a delegation of prominent business, professional and labor men, boy scouts of Los Angeles will parade in the business district this afternoon. FALLS FROM SCAFFOLD.

Falling from a scaffolding on the second floor of a new building at Sixth and Figueroa streets yesterday, James C. Boggs, 51 years of age, painter of 7562 Whitsett street, suffered perhaps fatally injured. At the Santa Fe Hospital, where he was taken for treatment, he was found to have received a fracture of the left leg and internal injuries.

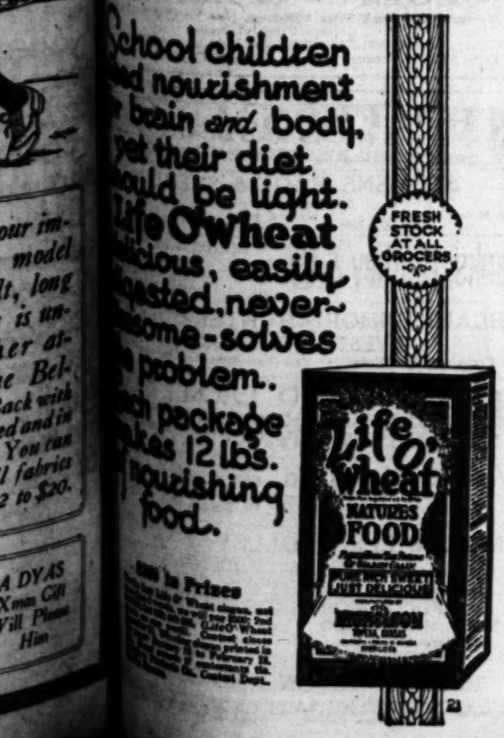
Prosperous Year Predicted.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—A prosperous year with business on a new and more stable basis is in prospect for 1921, Francis H. Sisson, a vice-president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, declared in an address here last night before the National Industrial Traffic League, representing 250,000 shippers.



MAID DENIES SPICY CHARGE

Mrs. Cherry De Vore, the second of the maids in the home of Dr. Ray D. Robinson to whom it was charged he made improper advances, denied on the stand during the trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Josephine H. Robinson in Judge Taft's court yesterday that such advances had been attempted. She testified Dr. Robinson tapped on the door of her room and entered, carrying his child. He was very pleasant and smilingly asked if she was lonesome. She told him she was not lonesome. On Thursday another maid testified Dr. Robinson tried to kiss her.

Ingall W. Bull, an attorney, was called in behalf of Mrs. Robinson in an attempt to impeach the evidence of Mrs. De Vore. He stated that Mrs. Robinson brought Mrs. De Vore to his office and in his presence the latter declared that Mr. Robinson had made an improper proposal to her, offering her money.

"She said that after that she was afraid to stay in the house on the nights that Mrs. Robinson went out," said Mr. Bull.

Christian Science practitioners were called as witnesses and said Mrs. Robinson was very nervous. Dr. Robinson took the stand late yesterday afternoon and denied the charges of his wife. Mrs. Robinson, it is said, is wealthy, receiving large sums of money from oil land.

Following is the official vote in the Tenth Congress District at the general election on the 2nd inst., as compiled by the Board of Supervisors, but, through an error, omitted from the official count in yesterday's Times:

TELLS TWO BANDIT TALES.

Police detectives yesterday began an investigation of a weird tale related at Central Police Station by Mrs. E. V. Nicholson, 32 years of age, living on West Washington street, to the effect that late Thursday night she was kidnaped on a downtown street by a highwayman, held in a room over night, robbed of about $7 and then turned loose near Sixth and Main streets early yesterday morning.

Fred Fisher, a young chauffeur from the State of Washington, was arrested in his room at 701 Beacon street last night by Detective Sergeants Jarvis and Hamilton and was held in connection with the crime.

According to the first story told by Mrs. Nicholson, she was forced at the point of a revolver to go with a "highwayman" to a room in a hotel. She also stated that he displayed a police badge. She further said that after releasing her from the room, he asked her to help him rob pedestrians on the streets.

Later she denied most of her first story and merely declared that the stranger took her to a room and robbed her.

TRACED LINEAGE TO TWO OF PRESIDENTS.

Mrs. A. U. Herring, wife of J. P. Herring, taxidermist with the McClellan expedition into Alaska for wild game for the Museum of History, Science and Arts, died at her home in this city on Thursday.

Mrs. Herring was a musician and artist. She painted the background for the Alaskan mountain goat group at the museum. She was a descendant of George Washington's family on her mother's side and of President Madison on her father's side.

CO-EDS AFTER COIN TODAY.

Any man or woman in Los Angeles who has not been approached to renew a membership in the American Red Cross since Armistice Day is asked by Rex B. Clark, general chairman for this district, to get a 1921 button and contribute $1 to the membership drive now on.

This is University of Southern California day in the roll call. The Trojan co-eds will try to get more subscriptions today from Angelenos than were taken last Saturday during the campaign waged by the southern branch University of California girls.

The Red Cross headquarters at 236 South Broadway announced yesterday that there is no methodical house-to-house canvass for subscriptions in the manner carried on during previous roll calls by precinct organizations. For this reason citizens are requested to give their subscriptions voluntarily to firemen, club women, policemen, letter carriers, university girls or individual workers who have the necessary credentials.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Stocks Continue to Tumble; Bread Stays Up; Conventions; Oil; Bonds.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

A continued slide down the toboggan marked the progress of the market yesterday. New lows were established in several leaders, and the marginal trader wore a worried look. Many are seriously embarrassed by the continued depression, but the real trouble is in New York, where conditions in the speculative realm are bad.

Little can be done now to stop the decline until it hits bottom, but this is likely to be in the near future on the theory that when the market gets so bad that it can't get any worse it will commence to get better. That point, in all probability, has about been reached.

On the home exchange oils continued to feel the effect of the continuous hammering.

Associated took a point and a half loss and sold at par. Mascot broke a point and dropped to sales at 1.75. Republic Petroleum lost a point. Union of California went to a low of 179⅝ and Delaware Union again made a new low mark, this time at 21 7-8. A few shares of Amalgamated sold around 70. United held firm at 50 cents.

In the mining list United Eastern led the list in rolling up a big decline and sold down to 2.56, a seven-point drop. There was nothing doing in Tom Reed. Heavy trading in Sunnyside at 4 cents.

Edison common showed few effects of the price-cutting tragedy going on all about it and held its own with registered sales at 88½.

A small block of Globe Grain and Milling brought par, and Goodyear preferred made a new low when it sold at 46⅛.

Trading in bonds was very light, with prices fairly well maintained at the Thursday level. It was, all in all, one of the weakest, most dangerous markets of the year. Today's business is likely to be on an exceedingly cautious and restricted basis, and no material changes are expected before next week.

DESERT OIL.

Ralph Beegan, right-of-way agent for Los Angeles county, appears to have started something over on the Mohave desert, where he is nursing an incipient oil boom.

About a year ago Beegan was put on the business end of a hot tip to the effect that geologists were casting appraising eyes towards certain sections of desert holdings. He busied himself and succeeded in interesting a number of county employees in the Hall of Records and some from the old home towns in Indiana. Four sections were purchased outright from the Southern Pacific, and a trust established.

Since then other companies have become interested in the vicinity and development work is now going forward, notably by the Hilawaths Oil Company, the Kramer Consolidated and the Interstate Oil Company.

The Beegan investment plan is unique in that no money has been expended for advertising, printing, overhead or selling bonuses, and that the property is held in fee simple.

Trade Talk has heretofore commented on other unusual features and as the time draws closer for a shower-down there is a material rise in temperature among several empire magnates at the head of Broadway.

BREAD PRICES FIRM.

Bread is not going to be any cheaper. At least not for some time. William Francis Ireland, secretary-chairman for the Southern California Wholesale and Retail Associations, is authority for the statement. He says that recent intimations that the staff of life would soon cost less are proving embarrassing to the bakers.

He further declares that at the present retail price, 12 cents, there is a positive loss on every loaf of bread handled. The actual production cost, according to Mr. Ireland, is 11.73 cents per loaf, and this does not take into account cripples, delivery or wastage and that the net cost is really above 12 cents.

Southern California bakers, according to the same authority, are still using flour purchased under old contracts, but he adds that even on the present open-market basis no reduction would be warranted because it would then only return an exceedingly modest profit.

"Los Angeles bread is cheaper than it is in the East and the quality of flour used is higher. It is impossible to foretell what the wheat market will do," said Mr. Ireland, "but unless there is a radical decline from present levels it will not be possible for our bakers to produce bread for less than they are now doing, and we do not think the public will expect us to operate at a loss."

The Wholesale and Retail Bakers' Association of Southern California will meet in Los Angeles in annual convention January 10 and 11, at which time some pertinent problems relative to price and production will be discussed.

RESTAURANTEERS COMING.

As a result of the oratory of Secretary William Francis Ireland and the persuasiveness of Horace Boos, the cafeteria king, at the recent Cleveland convention, the National Restaurant Association has decided to hold the 1921 meeting in Los Angeles. This is an all-American organization of leading hotel and restaurant proprietors throughout the United States, and the high membership standard set gives it an exclusive atmosphere. It is expected that about 1000 delegates, most of them with their families, will make the transcontinental trek next October.

PRICE LEVELS.

Government statistics indicate a drop in the cost of living of 3 per cent in Los Angeles for October for twenty-two staple articles. Present indications are that the November level will show a further decrease in this city of from 3 to 5 per cent, and this in spite of mounting cost of dairy products.

SOUTHERN GAS.

Southern Counties Gas Company has applied to the Railroad Commission for authority to issue $1,000,000 par value ten-year collateral trust gold bonds. The proceeds are to be used in extensions. The first issue will be for $400,000 with $600,000 held in reserve for future use.

DIVIDEND NOTICES.

San Joaquin Light and Power Company announces a regular quarterly dividend of $1.50 a share, payable December 15, books to close November 30.

California Packing Corporation announces a dividend of $1.50 a share on common stock, payable December 15, to stockholders of record November 30. Books do not close.

Hecla Mining Company announces a dividend of 15 cents a share, payable December 23. Books close December 1.

TAX REVISION.

Tax revision is rapidly becoming a paramount issue in Great Britain just as it is in this country. England's taxes are said to be 35 per cent the total income of the nation. Cash reserves are only 9 per cent against 22 per cent a year ago. The Wall Street Journal says that this condition is stopping the wheels of trade, and that a financial crisis is expected.

BUSINESS BRIEFS.

Average price of twenty industrials, 74.36, a decline of .85 per cent. Twenty rails, 77.20, a decline of .52 per cent.

Stockholders of Texas Company ratify increase in capital stock from $130,000,000 to $143,000,000.

Seat sold on the New York Stock Exchange for $95,000.

Taxable income of the United States for 1918 increased more than $2,272,000,000 over 1917.

Thirty-million-dollar bond issue for Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company approved by stockholders. Also increase in capital from $71,000,000 to $125,000,000.

MORE COURTESY.

One of the signs of the readjustment which the consumer is noting with appreciation is a partial return of courtesy on the part of those from whom the purchase is made. During the war and for some time thereafter there grew up a spirit of arrogance that was all but intolerable. Take it or leave it was the attitude of many salespersons, and the man or woman with money to spend was often put into a supplicant's position. The customer is not always right in spite of the slogan adopted by some dealers, but he is at least entitled to civil treatment when he enters the market, and with the removal of the high pressure era during which there were two jobs for every worker, he is beginning to receive it once more.

HELLO! CENTRAL.

Telephone companies throughout the country are swamped with proffered business and far behind in equipment demands, but the 9000 Los Angeles customers who are waiting for their phones are no worse off than they are elsewhere. The proportion works out almost exactly in New York where 80,000 orders await filing and New York is about nine times as large as Los Angeles. In Philadelphia, however, with a population about double that of Los Angeles there are only 12,000 on the waiting list, but Los Angeles is growing several times faster than the Quaker City. Total number of phone subscribers in the United States is said to be in excess of 12,000,000.

OUR GROWING TRADE.

Trade of the United States with its noncontiguous territories will make a new high record in the calendar year 1920. In fact, says a statement by the National City Bank of New York, the trade with our noncontiguous territories in eight months ending with August of the current year was greater than in any complete calendar year preceding. This term includes, of course, the Philippine Islands, the Hawaiian Islands, Alaska and Porto Rico.

The total trade with this noncontiguous territory in the eight months ending with August, 1920, was $606,000,000 against $532,000,000 in the full calendar year 1919, and $236,000,000 in the full calendar year immediately preceding the war, 1913.

In the single month of August, 1920, the latest for which we have figures, the total was $110,000,000 against $50,000,000 in August of the preceding year, and while it is scarcely probable that this very high monthly record will continue during the remaining four months of the year, it is quite apparent that the trade with the territories in question will in the full calendar year 1920 exceed $800,000,000 against $532,000,000 in the full calendar year 1919.

LOW LEVEL REACHED BY BARLEY PRICES.

Following the break in the Chicago market, prices reacted sharply to a low close on the local grain exchange yesterday. The end of the call found ten-day barley $1.50 per ton lower, while the thirty-day shipment was down $1.60 per ton, and the twenty-day article was $2 below previous quotations. A sale of ten-day barley was made at 2.04½. The futures slumped $2 per ton, with sales of all-November barley at $2.02½ and of all-December at $2. Milo was also off, but no sales were recorded. The near-by barley dropped to the extent of $1.02 per ton.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Hopes of action to maintain present prices as a measure of stability was without influence.

Equipments followed the course of steels and oils and motors also were weak, with food, tobacco and chemical shares. Mexican Petroleum lost 5½; Royal Dutch, 2½; Baldwin Locomotive, 2¾; Studebaker, 3 1-8; American Sugar and Industrial Alcohol, 3¼ each, and Corn Products, 3 points. Shippings, weakest features of the preceding session, made feeble recoveries, but investment rates, notably Reading and Northern Pacific, reacted at the feverish end.

Bonds went the way of stocks, although losses were relatively light, a few Liberty issues closing at actual gains. Total sales, par value, aggregated $13,875,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Camel CIGARETTES

Dear Old Boy Pete!

Dallas, Texas. Sunday.

This corner of the U.S. mainland is so wonderful in its bigness and bustle I guess I go mouth wide open and eyes staring! Why, Pete, Texans don't talk in miles—it doesn't mean anything! They'll tell you that this place, or that, is an all-day trip, or two days and a night distant, etc. And, old yardstick, you've got the feet, just let it sink in deep that Texas is not only over 800 miles wide but it is our fifth state in population!

Heard a bird in the Adolphus hotel say that when he comes off the west border he figures he's close home to Baltimore when he's across the Lone Star State! Talk about "jumps"! Try a few, say the one between Texarkana and El Paso!

Pete, everything grows big down here—business as well as folks' hearts! I like the way they never forget! Here I was walking on Main Street yesterday when as fine a type of man as ever wore one of those broad Texas smiles came up to me. "How are you, lieutenant?" says he. "Maybe you'll call back that day at Camp Dick when I brought over that bunch of Camel Cigarettes for the boys," he continued. Right then and there a Camel conference opened!

Golly, Pete, this party coins Camel compliments faster than the mint makes money! "Lieutenant," says he, "I know when I'm set! I've smoked cigarettes for five years! (NOW LISTEN, PETE!) I know Camels and I know their marvellous mild, mellow body and refreshing flavor and wonderful Turkish and Domestic blend! A million Camels wouldn't

PROGRESS MADE ON PORT PACT.

City Council and Salt Lake Nearer to an Agreement.

Setting Aside of Fund for New Docks is Proposed.

Widening Channel Will Mean Delay for Other Work.

Progress was made yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the City Council toward a compromise agreement between the city and the Salt Lake Railroad Company, which will permit the widening of the main channel at the harbor, the building of new wharves and docks, a highway across Terminal Island and a drawbridge connecting the island with the mainland.

For months there has been pending a proposed contract between the city and the railroad company, and the reading of the latest draft of the agreement at the meeting of the Council yesterday afternoon brought forth objections from the Councilmen and City Engineer Griffin.

Attorney A. S. Halsted of the Salt Lake at one time threatened to withdraw. Councilman Wheeler had said of the contract then under consideration, "It looks to me as if the railroad company is getting a pippin out of this contract and the city getting a lemon." Mr. Halsted quickly replied:

"The Salt Lake Railroad is not seeking anything. We have put all our cards on the table. We have frittered away months here trying to meet the Council's wishes in this matter. I don't intend to come here to be insulted, and if this is to continue, I shall refuse to come here and shall withdraw the contract."

Councilman Mallard poured oil on the troubled waters and proposed a compromise, which was indorsed by Frank A. Garbutt and quickly received the assent of City Engineer Griffin.

Attorney Halsted seemed favorably inclined to the compromise plan, saying he would discuss it with the Council at an adjourned meeting at 1:30 p.m. next Monday.

The Mallard compromise calls for the setting aside by the city of $1,350,000 to be used solely for building on Terminal Island new docks, which will be made necessary by the destruction of the present Salt Lake terminal property by the widening of the main channel. This money is to be spent within two years. Then the city is to agree to proceed with the remaining Terminal Island development work called for in the contract—the building of a highway to the new docks and a drawbridge across Long Beach channel to the mainland.

If the compromise plan should go through it would probably be necessary to cancel outstanding orders and to delay indefinitely many harbor development projects and this would be done, Harbor Commissioner Gordon said, in order to insure cash on hand to put through the work called for by the Salt Lake agreement.

According to City Engineer Griffin's figures, $1,039,825.28 of the $4,600,000 harbor bond issue has been spent and contracts made and orders issued for work, if carried out, would leave but $802,442.33 in the bond fund, while about $2,154,000 would be required to carry out all the work called for by the contract.

Among the projects that may be delayed until more bonds have been authorized is the extension of the Harbor Boulevard, for which $671,000 has been temporarily set aside.

Chief and Commission Oust Trio Accused of Theft; Issue Dry Warning.

Fire Chief Scott and the Fire Commission yesterday warned all city firemen to beware of the red, red wine, and followed it up by announcing the dismissal from the department of Firemen Edward R. Cody, Valentine Buscaluz and Frank V. McRae, who, after visiting a blind pig and inhaling some vin rouge, proceeded, the police charge, to playfully steal the pocketbook of Mrs. Kate Chutuk of 3107 Upper Boulevard.

Chief Scott said the men told him that they did not attack Mrs. Chutuk nor did they enter her home for the purpose of soliciting Red Cross subscriptions, but that the wine they had drunk was the guilty party.
